CHRISTMAS formals, lovely house decorations, the mad bustle of going home for the holidays—all of these, fun though they are, should not obscure for us the realization that the holiday season brings also a renewed emphasis on our philanthropies and on our social obligations to our communities. There was scarcely a chapter house across the country but what entertained small counterparts of the wide-eyed guests on our cover. And those little recipients of Santa's favors, the families which received needed Christmas baskets, the war orphans whose adoption meant food and shelter, and countless others could testify at this holiday season to the fraternity's social consciousness and its "influence for good."

⌘ KAPPA ALPHA THETA is published on the fifteenth of October, December, February, and April by the George Banta Publishing Company, official printer and publisher of the fraternity at 450 Ahnaip Street, Menasha, Wisconsin. The subscription price is $1.50 a year; single copies, 50 cents. ⌘ Address pictures, copy, and correspondence to the editor, Mrs. Robert L. Stuhr, 401 Forty-second Street, Des Moines 12, Iowa. Two New Chapter Houses Opened This Fall

Minnesota and Southern Methodist Realize Dreams of Long-Standing

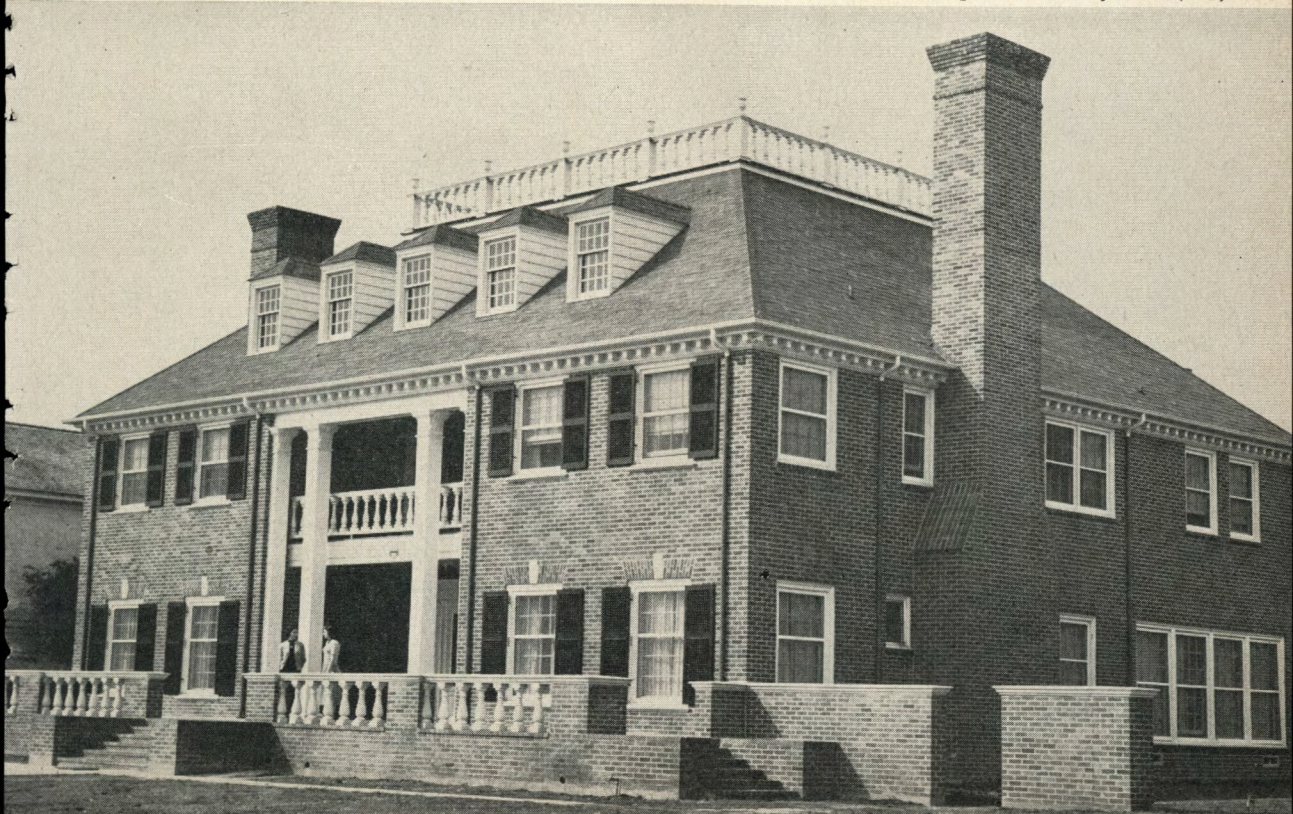

On widely separated college campuses this fall, college Thetas reveled in beautiful new accommodations, weary alumnæ basked in a well-earned sense of achievement, and college communities voiced their admiration of Kappa Alpha Theta's new chapter houses. Yes, it was moving day for the Thetas at the University of Minnesota and at Southern Methodist university.

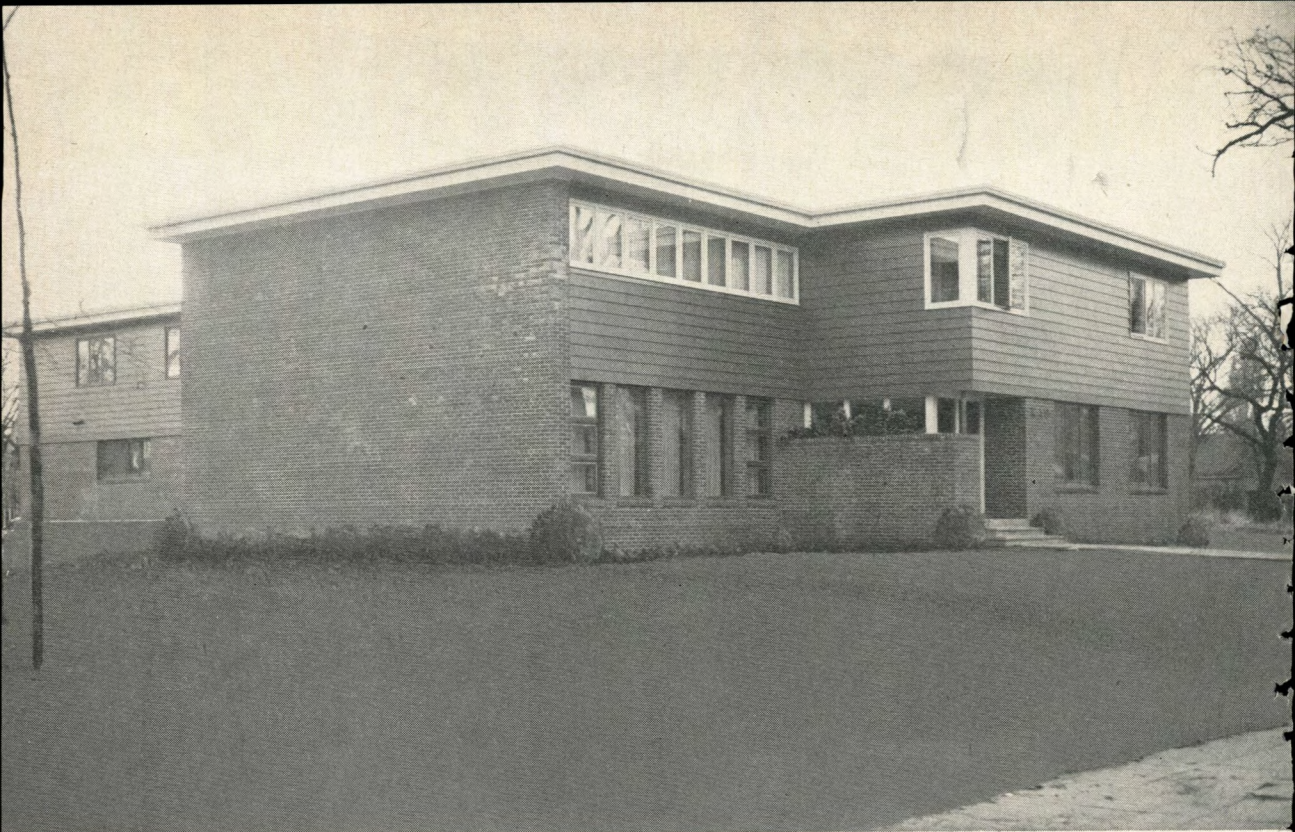

For both chapters and their alumnæ, it was truly a momentous occasion. The new red brick Georgian house at Southern Methodist is Beta Sigma chapter's first home, the outcome of 25 years of work and hope. Upsilon chapter at Minnesota had had a chapter house, badly outmoded and outgrown, but during this past year of building had been houseless and more than ever eager for the day when it would occupy its new contemporary-style home. Both houses, widely differing in style as they are, are spacious, comfortable, appropriate and beautifully-appointed.

On the following pages, hard-working members of the two house associations tell the stories of patient effort and cooperation which made these two houses possible. Their descriptions of the two chapter houses, and accompanying pictures, give ample justification for the pride that the two chapters, their alumnæ and the entire fraternity has in these new Kappa Alpha Theta chapter homes.

Minnesota Occupies Contemporary-Style Home

By VICTORINE HALL HARLOW
Editor, Minneapolis Alumnæ Chapter

In 1910, Upsilon chapter purchased a family home near the campus of the University of Minnesota, becoming the first sorority on the campus to own a home. In those days, the house was quite adequate to accommodate the number of girls, but the chapter has since grown until the old house could no longer meet our needs. In addition to lack of space, there were numerous and expensive repairs.

In June, 1949, the chapter purchased a very desirable lot, 80 feet by 165 feet, opposite the residence provided for the president of the University of Minnesota. This was the first step on the road to our dream house. With confidence and determination, we worked toward that goal. We completed the sale of the old house in September, 1950.

Since the new tenants requested immediate occupancy, we were faced with a problem.

Where were our girls to be boarded until a new home could be erected? Our new neighbors next door learned of our predicament and offered us one whole floor. The first quarter of the school year, the girls lived at the Delta Gamma house. The second quarter, they moved to the Phi Mu house where Theta's housemother, Mrs. Markham, was chaperoning for the year. Many other fraternities and sororities offered space in their houses for rushing and parties. It was gratifying to know that we had so many friends on the campus, but greater than that, here was real proof that fraternities and sororities can and do help each other.

Kappa Alpha Theta is keeping abreast with the architectural trend on the campus in building a contemporary home. With the next 25 years in mind, we have built a house to stand the wear and tear of 58 girls. The very best of materials were used in the construction. In our cold climate, we have to consider insulation and heating. The house is warm, comfortable, spacious and durable.

Let us take a tour. In approaching, our attention is drawn immediately to the color scheme of the exterior. The lower part of the house is of red brick; the upper part is horizontal battens painted Williamsburg green. The house has a flat roof, typical of contemporary homes. As we come nearer, we are impressed with the front door which is modern in design and dark green in color. This was a gift from Marion Burton Whittaker in memory of her mother, Gertrude Bell Burton.

We enter the front hall and are immediately impressed with its spaciousness. Looking through blonde oak columns, we see a large living room and dining room in the shape of an "L." To our left is a lounge, 24 feet by 28 feet, with five thermapane windows on one side, and four thermapane windows with a French door leading to a future patio on the other side. The sun, streaming through the many windows, makes a picturesque setting. A long row of low cupboards divides the hall and the living room. These cupboards are useful in storing victrola records and bridge tables.

The corner of our "L" forms a cozy alcove around the fireplace. Our attention is drawn to the large square paneling in blonde oak above the fireplace—attractive in design and in keeping with the architecture. This paneling, together with the fireplace fittings, were gifts from the Mothers' club. The hearth is 5 feet of gray-blue slate. The top of our "L" forms the dining room, 21 feet by 33 feet.

Two French doors and three thermapane windows, overlooking the patio-to-be, make this room also light and cheerful. There are three long tables in the dining room with a seating capacity for 58.

Let us go back to the entrance and turn right. The first room we approach is the library and trophy room. The bookshelves were a gift by Ava Chase in memory of her mother, Elizabeth Fisher Litzenberg. Other gifts were in memory of Alice Jones Davis and Katharine Jackson Burch.

Adjoining the library is the powder room. This is an exceptionally well designed room to accommodate the town girls' wraps and belongings. The room has a large modern dressing table, overstuffed chairs, two telephone booths and a lavatory.

Across the hall we come to our housemother's suite of rooms, an attractive living room, bedroom and bath. Mrs. Markham furnished her own suite. She tells us that she especially likes the location of her apartment, since she is in a position to see and hear everything.

Before we climb the stairs, let us take one more look at the color scheme downstairs. The living room walls are of that same Williamsburg green, with one long wall of the new bitter-sweet shade—startling, but beautiful! At the many windows are biege, ratiné draperies on traverse rods, which may be drawn at night. The dining room has three different, but harmonious colored walls, dark green, pale yellow and very light gray. We were indeed fortunate in having the services of the late Mr. Johns H. Hopkins, resident consultant designer at the University of Minnesota, an expert on color.

On the second floor we stroll leisurely down the long hall looking left and right as we pass the doors. There are ten double bedrooms with large pella windows in series of three. Each room has two closets, twin beds, desks, bureau, lamps, all different in color and furnishings.

The central bathroom is spacious, with three showers, dressing room, five washbasins, five toilets and a bath tub. Another lavatory is at the end of the hall. One of the most popular rooms on this floor is the laundry which has two washtubs, ironing board and clothes rack for drying.

Blonde oak columns, through which the living and dining rooms may be seen, are a feature of the front hall.

Around the corner and at the opposite end of the hall, we come to the chapter room and study hall. Much like the living room, it has many windows, which make it light and cheerful. The living room, dining room and chapter room have sound-proof ceilings and indirect lighting.

We must not leave the second floor without describing the town girls' room. The walls are of pale green, and a large mirror reaching from floor to ceiling greets us upon entering. This room can accommodate six girls overnight. It is attractively furnished, with slip covers and draperies donated by the Mothers' club.

Now for a last stroll downstairs to the kitchen. The walls are pale yellow, and there are numerous Geneva metal cabinets with red formica tops, providing all kinds of storage space. A very handy double-deck serving island is in the center of the kitchen. There are three sinks, and a very attractive breakfast room by a large window. Adjoining the kitchen are the cook's room and bath. Behind it is the utility room, large enough to provide storage space for canned goods and an extra refrigerator.

The basement consists of a trunk room, laundry, and men's lavatory and coat room.

The floors throughout the entire building are of marbleized asphalt tile, black and white on the first floor and brown and white on the second floor. We find that asphalt tile is both economical and practical.

To build a house of this size and quality took courage and hard work, particularly on the part of the members of the Minnesota Upsilon Association Board. We cannot leave

Southern Methodist's First Home Is Georgian

By JOSEPHINE DUVAL SCURRY

At last the sororities at Southern Methodist university have chapter houses, Beta Sigma of Kappa Alpha Theta among them. This accomplishment has covered a period of 25 years. Think of it. It is a story of many disappointments, of the concerned efforts of many and the light of hope carried through all these years.

The University, for a long time, opposed separate houses for the various sororities. During that time, they rented small quarters off the campus which could be used for meetings. This was very unsatisfactory. Then the University became more in need of housing, and in 1937 Dean Lide Spragins and Dean A. C. Zumbrunnen called together representatives of each social order to form the first Housing Committee which became the Panhellenic Housing Corporation. The members assumed office in rotation.

The first plan submitted provided for cottages to be grouped in a horseshoe on the campus. They were to be meeting places. The girls were not to live in them. Before construction could begin, World War II began. Material became unobtainable so the project was abandoned. The committee was wise, however, in voting not to disband and in seeing that each sorority saved five per cent of its annual net income toward a building fund. The light was thus kept burning.

In 1945 the committee became active again. By that time the GIs had swelled enrollment at Southern Methodist and the housing situation was desperate. It was decided to build duplex-type structures in a quadrangle on the campus. These plans included complete living quarters for the girls. Blueprints were again drawn, but these plans had to be discarded when it was discovered that the costs were prohibitive, especially since the buildings were to be on the school property and would not belong outright to the sororities.

The next proposal was that a great Panhellenic building be erected off the campus, a six-story structure to cover the whole block. Again plans were drawn, but this, too, proved too big a financial undertaking.

By then the Panhellenic Housing Corporation was convinced that what they needed and wanted was individual sorority-owned houses, off the campus. At the request of the Corporation, Mrs. W. W. Fondren, a member of Southern Methodist University Board of Trustees, came from Houston to help study the situation. She gave her approval to the Corporation's latest plan and sponsored it before the Board. It was accepted unanimously. The result, eleven sorority houses within the year.

During all this time the Thetas took an active part in the various building schemes. The Beta Sigma Corporation existed from as early as 1929 and lasted through 1949, finally becoming the Theta Educational Foundation on July 1, 1950. The new organization was formed for tax purposes.

Robert Ritchie, a Theta husband, became our lawyer and set up the above Foundation, meeting every requirement of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the establishment of scholarships for three young women in education of exceptional children. We felt that a miracle had happened when we applied to Commissioner of Internal Revenue for exemption in August and received it in September! Giving the scholarships tied in with the Dallas Alumnae project, The Kappa Alpha Theta Aphasia Center.

The officers on the Board of Trustees were Mrs. N. J. Harris, chairman, who carried the full responsibility of building the house, Mrs. J. T. Ehricht, treasurer, and Mrs. J. H. Dunlap, secretary. They were ably assisted by Mrs. N. W. Gay, Mrs. C. A. Griesenback, Mrs. J. B. Rucker, Jr., who was president of Beta Sigma Building Corporation and later became president of Panhellenic Housing Corporation, Mrs. E. B. Jordon, Mrs. W. R. Browne, Mrs. Martin A. Row, Mrs. Verne H. Maxwell and Mrs. R. E. McKee, president of Dallas Alumnae.

Finally, when the University gave them the go-ahead signal, the sororities drew for lots and leased the land at one dollar per year for 100 years from the University. Southern Methodist University would lend up to 60% of the house; our National supplemented this, but the balance was up to the efforts of the Dallas Alumnae. We had many money-making projects: a wonderful tea at Mrs. E. L. DeGolyer's, a style show put on by Neiman-Marcus at the Dallas Country Club, Christmas cards and wrappings sold by the night group, stationery sold by another group, and other projects. The finance committee decided that this method was too slow, however, so the committee asked for direct contributions. This mammoth job was handled by Mrs. Verne H. Maxwell. She did a tremendous job of getting the files completed. Two letters were sent to all Thetas living in Texas and two to Beta Sigma alumnae all over the world. Many other Thetas helped her. Virginia Dupies handled the printing of all the letters.

The building committee chose Mr. Hal Yoakum for the architect. He was also the architect for the Tri Delta house, which was to be next door. Plans were submitted to the Mothers' club and to the girls for suggestions. Finally the plans were completed and a set sent to Miss Edith Cockins, national chairman of housing, August 17, 1950.

At this time, the Trustees needed some moral support and asked Mrs. James Hofstead, Grand Treasurer, to come down. She graciously consented and made a trip to Dallas in December. Her encouragement meant a great deal to us at this critical time.

The next hurdle was to find a contractor who would bid on such a large house with war looming on the horizon. Mr. John Taylor staked off the foundation Dec. 15 in a desperate effort to get started before the freeze of construction. War in Korea made us wonder if we would be able to finish the house at all. Thanks to our most able contractor, we can now report that we were not delayed by a single item—every thing proceeded smoothly and on schedule.

On Feb. 10 we had the cornerstone ceremony which convinced us that, after a quarter of a century, we were really going to have a house. The next step was to plan for the furnishings. Mrs. Fred H. Puckhaber was chairman of the decoration committee. Mrs. Margaret Sedwick of Titcher-Goettinger was selected as decorator.

The deadline for all to be finished was Sept. 10. Men worked overtime Saturdays and Sundays in a desperate effort to have everything ready.

And so on Sept. 10, 28 very excited Thetas moved into Beta Sigma's beautiful new Georgian house. It is red brick with wide front and back terraces leading through tall stately white columns. The charm and spaciousness of the house is felt the moment one comes into the entrance hall—whether glancing directly ahead into the dining and recreation rooms, to the left into the living room, to the right into the house-mother's suite, or into the library and trophy room and even up the graceful winding stairway!

An atmosphere of elegance, without losing homelike comfort, is achieved in the living room by several groupings of lounges and chairs of functional design. Medium brown carpets are a complement to the soft gray-green walls downstairs. Rich dark mahogany has been used for the furniture with the exception of the recreation room which has rattan. The dining area and recreation rooms can be used together for large functions, accommodating several hundred people. Connecting with the play room, but elevated one-half foot, is the small library and trophy room, which can be used for a stage or orchestra.

The three lovely mahogany dining tables and chairs were custom made, and each of the three will seat 20 persons. White draperies of linen weave are used in the dining room.

Sixty persons can be served in this dining room, which also is furnished in mahogany. For large functions, the dining and recreation rooms may be used together.

One of the most convenient features is the back entrance and the back stairway which permit the girls to go upstairs without having to go through the front entrance.

The kitchen is large and adequate. The Mothers' club gave two 11-foot refrigerators, a large kitchen range and more than $300.00 worth of kitchen equipment.

Upstairs there are 14 bedrooms, a room overlooking the balcony at the front of the house for the town girls, two large baths and tubs for washing lingerie, etc. Each girl has a solid mahogany dressing-table desk combination and her own closet with sliding doors.

Most of our money contributions have been small, but we have had some outstanding gifts. Mrs. Kervey M. Amsler and her daughter, Katherine Amsler Priddy, in memory of their daughter and sister, Betty Jo Amsler, gave a beautiful tea service and tray, two silver double vegetable dishes, a silver punch ladle and a serving spoon. Laura Eleanor Fisher, also in memory of Betty Jo Amsler, gave a gorgeous silver punch bowl. The Houston Mothers' club sent two five-branch silver candleabra. The Midland Alumnæ gave the chapter a silver lazy susan. The Mothers' club of Dallas gave silver flat-ware besides the above mentioned articles in the kitchen.

Now this story comes to an end. The girls living in the house will begin a new one. I am sure that the Thetas in Dallas and in Texas will appreciate all that Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Ehricht, Mrs. Puckhaber and all the others who had a part in the building of the house have done. It is truly a beautiful home for Beta Sigma.

you with the impression that such a tremendous undertaking has been easy, for it has been far from that. Our board has worked diligently night and day. We wish to express our deep appreciation to Louise Leavitt Mitchell, building chairman. Louise had the difficult job of arranging the financing; mailing out brochures; receiving personal donations and writing individual "Thank you" notes; conferring with the architects and contractor; selecting fixtures, and countless other detail jobs.

We are also deeply grateful to Katharine Birch Spear, president of the Association, and to Catherine Knudtsen, treasurer. Catherine has been responsible for paying all bills; for arranging for insurance, and for many other time-consuming jobs.

Kathrine Wyatt Perkins, Beta chapter, who is secretary for the Association and house furnishings chairman, has spent almost every day for several months working in the old house and the new—painting and antiquing furniture, washing and dyeing bedspreads, slipcovers and draperies, refinishing furniture, hanging pictures. In general she has been busy making the furnishings from the old house fit harmoniously into the new. While the girls were out of a home temporarily and lost their housemother for one quarter, Kathrine spent every day and evening for two weeks during rushing. She

Come to Convention!

It's June 25-30 at Sun Valley, Idaho

By JEANETTE GRASSETT
Convention Manager

Plans are almost completed for the 40th Grand Convention of Kappa Alpha Theta. This convention will have as official delegates representatives from 76 college chapters, 65 alumnae chapters and the Loan and Fellowship Fund delegate, plus all national officers, committee chairmen and visitors.

We expect the total attendance to be more than 500. What a contrast to the first convention held in Bloomington, Ind., in 1872 with 12 present, representing two chapters. In the minutes of this convention it was stated that the purpose of the meeting was to increase the interest and the welfare of Kappa Alpha Theta. Today this is equally true, but as the fraternity has grown, convention has become a great reunion where friendships are made, renewed and strengthened, and where the fraternity develops methods, strengthens organization and creates policies.

With the world in a state of unrest and fearful of the loss of democratic freedoms let us realize the privilege and the responsibility which are ours to hold this 40th Grand Convention.

These Sun Valley hikers are viewing the resort village and its scenic surroundings from the summit of nearby Penny mountain. This Idaho playground offers a score of outdoor activities on its warm weather sports program.

Location?

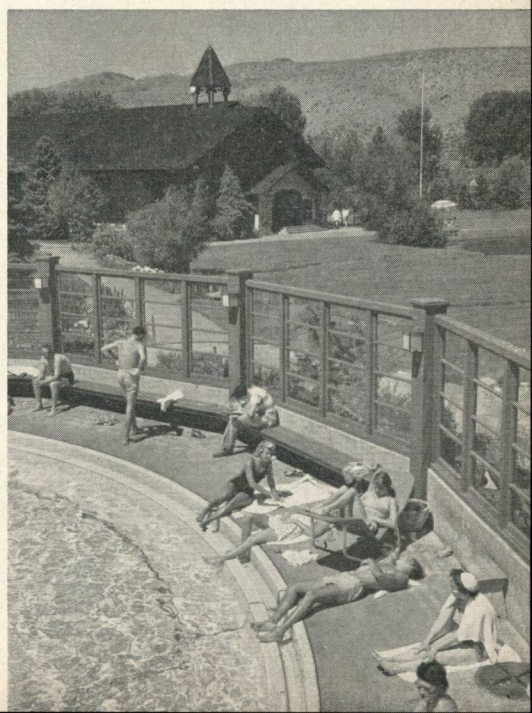

It's Ideal

Sun Valley offers us an ideal spot for convention. It is situated in the scenic Sawtooth Mountains, and its many separate buildings make it seem like a small village.

There are two main hotels where we will be accommodated: the Sun Valley Lodge and Challenger Inn, both of which we hope to fill.

The convention rate will be $14.00 per day, American plan. Reservations should be made direct to Sun Valley, Idaho. Reservation blanks will be printed in the next two issues of this magazine.

Above is Sun Valley Lodge, one of the hotels where Theta convention delegates and visitors will be housed. This pool, below, is at the Challenger Inn, another hotel where Theta conventionites will stay. In the background is the opera house where convention sessions will be held.

"All Aboard"

The Convention Special

Part of the fun of convention is being on the special train. The Union Pacific Railroad has planned a delightful trip for us. Tentative plans call for departure from Chicago at 12:30 P.M. on June 23. The train will go by way of Denver, making connections along the way with cars from other areas.

A side trip is planned at Denver where passengers, leaving all luggage on the train, will take buses to Greeley, Colo. At Boulder, we will stop at the Theta house at the University of Colorado. Then on to Estes Park where luncheon will be served in the Estes Park Chalets.

The buses will meet our train at Greeley at 5:00 P.M. on June 24. The cost of this side trip, including luncheon, will be $10.00. Anyone preferring not to take the trip may ride the train straight to Greeley. If it is at all possible, however, we urge everyone to take the trip, as it offers an opportunity to see the real grandeur of the Rocky Mountains, and there are no side trips planned at Sun Valley.

The Special will pick up more cars coming from the Southwest at Pocatello, Idaho and will arrive at Ketchum at 10:45 A.M. on June 25, where we will be met, we are told, in truly western style by cowboys and a band. Buses will take all of us to Sun Valley, only a short distance away.

Thetas touring the resort village and the picturesque Sawtooth Mountains surrounding it will find available varied means of transportation, ranging from this 19th century convertible through sleek station wagons.

In order that you may figure the approximate cost of transportation, we are giving tentative railroad and Pullman fares from various sections of the country. There is a possibility of a 10% increase in railroad fares.

	Round trip fare with tax	Lower 1 way—with tax
New York, N.Y.	$195.39	$27.49
Cleveland, Ohio	144.84	22.54
Chicago, Ill.	110.75	19.09
Dallas, Texas	108.45	19.09
Los Angeles, Cal.	75.56	14.09
Seattle, Wash.	57.67	11.04
Toronto, Ont.	147.33	21.00
Kansas City, Mo.	68.31	15.53
Burlington, Vt.	208.52	32.14
New Orleans, La.	145.71	23.75
Denver, Colo.	56.12	11.04

Complete information about transportation will be given in the next two issues of the magazine. All railroad tickets should be purchased from your local railroad agent, but all Pullman reservations on the Special must be made through the Chicago office of the Union Pacific Railroad. Blanks for that purpose will be printed in the magazine.

You'll Enjoy Convention's Program

A complete convention program will be published in the next issue of the magazine, but we'd like to give you a glimpse of some of the events planned for your enjoyment.

1. Two free afternoons to enjoy the varied recreational features of Sun Valley. These include a ride on the Ski Lift up Baldy Mountain; you rise 3,200 feet with a breath-taking panoramic view of the entire valley. There are two glass enclosed swimming pools, a tricky nine hole golf course, stables with 100 horses so that you may ride the trails, an outdoor skating rink where skates can be rented, tennis courts, bowling alleys, and other features.
2. A barbecue supper. We will all be taken in buses to beautiful Trail Creek where hotel chefs will cook and serve. This will be our fun night. Costumes will be in order. More information on the theme will appear later. Stunts will be given by chapters in the District.
3. A dinner on the terrace of the Lodge with a Song Fest followed by a professional Ice Skating Show.
4. The formal Banquet—a fitting climax to our convention.

The Sun Valley golf course is a popular spot for visitors.

New Presidents Named for Districts X and XII

New district presidents have been appointed by Grand Council for Districts X and XII to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Bobbette Cook and Wanda Buchanan, respectively. The entire fraternity is indebted to these retiring officers for their excellent service and regrets that they are unable to continue in their official capacities.

Their districts are indeed fortunate to have found such able replacements as Mary Janet Hamilton Blackburn, new president of District X, and Dorothy Taft Garner, new president of District XII.

Mrs. Blackburn, whose home is in Alexandria, Va., was a 1936 graduate of DePauw university where she was a member of Alpha chapter. Mrs. Garner is a member of Alpha Omicron chapter at the University of Oklahoma where she was graduated in 1928. Her home is in Norman, Okla.

The February issue of Kappa Alpha Theta will include photographs and biographical sketches of the two new district officers.

Loan and Fellowship Fund Receives Legacy

By ELIZABETH HUGHES BRIGGS
Chairman, Loan and Fellowship Committee

A legacy of $1,000 has been left to the Loan and Fellowship Fund by Josephine Cook Lippincott who died in Los Angeles this spring. It was Mrs. Lippincott, a member of Kappa chapter at Kansas university, who conceived the idea of the Scholarship Fund as the Loan and Fellowship Fund was first known.

When Mrs. Lippincott proposed the project in 1902 to the Iota Alumnæ chapter in Los Angeles, that small new group of Thetas received the suggestion with enthusiasm and appointed a committee to develop plans for a Scholarship Fund.

Before this bold vision of constructive service challenged the members of Iota chapter, minute books of the meetings in the "Naughty Noughts" reveal that they were content with social activities. "Feasting ethereally on chocolates and candied violets" and planning tally-ho rides were Victorian delights which occupied their attention.

But let Mrs. Lippincott tell the story as she related it in "Birth of the Scholarship Fund" in the Theta magazine of November 1935!

"I thought that if that Theta chapter was to continue, we would have to have some inspiration. So I consulted Dr. John R. Haynes about the possibilities of scholarships, about what scholarships meant, and how much they cost; and he kindly let me have a catalog of his Alma Mater, the University of Pennsylvania. I took it home and studied it, and discovered that with an endowment of $50,000 a scholarship might be maintained for keeping a student in Europe. Why not a foreign scholarship? My! The inspiration was so vivid and so real that $50,000 sank into insignificance, so at the next meeting I said, "Why don't we start a foreign scholarship for Theta; we only have to have $50,000 and we can keep a girl abroad, and think of the inspiration to study for that! Nobody was daunted. So we planned it and talked about it and were enthusiastic about it."

As Mrs. Lippincott confessed, "We were all terribly young and had to count our pennies." In spite of the handicap of size, youth, and limited resources, Iota chapter minutes of Feb. 6, 1904 record that the treasurer reported a surplus of $15.20. The eight members present voted to place ten dollars of the surplus "in a savings bank to the credit of a graduate scholarship fund." Great was the treasurer's delight when she later announced that interest amounting to ten cents had accumulated.

Though Mrs. Lippincott, with wisdom and vision mothered the scholarship idea, she was assisted by a corps of nurses who nourished and coddled the infant fund. Plans for its growth did not spring Minerva-like into being, but were painstakingly evolved. A committee was appointed on March 5, 1904 to write to other alumnæ chapters to solicit their aid in an ambitious scheme of money raising. Members of Iota Alumnæ chapter were asked to make pledges toward a goal of $10,000.

Progress was painfully slow. With characteristic faith, courage, and competence, Grace Lavayea, delegate from Los Angeles to the National Convention in Philadelphia in 1905, appealed to other alumnæ chapters for help. Grace Lavayea's recommendation that the fund become a national, rather than a chapter, undertaking was adopted by the convention, which also "appointed the Los Angeles alumnæ custodian of the fund and authorized it to collect money for the fund."

The 1911 Grand Convention voted to set aside part of each initiation fee to swell the fund. All Thetas since that date have thus participated in the splendid service of the Loan and Fellowship Fund. The fund eventually reached the impressive total of $100,000 through generous gifts of alumnæ chapters and the allocation of one dollar from each initiation fee to the fund.

In the course of the years since its founding, more than 1350 loans have been made, largely to undergraduates in financial need. Nine fellowships have been granted to Thetas for advanced study, several studying in Europe as Mrs. Lippincott envisioned. Four foreign fellowships have been awarded to women from Chile, Holland, Czechoslovakia and India. Fellowships were originally for $1,200, but have been increased to $1,500. In addition, 33 $500 Awards have been made to young Thetas of unusual promise for graduate work.

As the Los Angeles Alumnæ chapter celebrates its Golden Jubilee with lighting of candles and speeches "remembering when," it counts its part in initiating the Loan and Fellowship as one of its finest achievements. Officers who played an important part in the development of the fund after the turn of the century are being honored. Committees in charge of the semi-centennial celebration of 1951 are questioning contemporaries of Mrs. Lippincott about the early days with a zeal that would do credit to a Congressional investigating committee. Among those whom Los Angeles Thetas delight to honor because of their perseverance and faith in the Scholarship Fund are: Ada Edwards Laughlin, Phi; Lou Whipple McCrea, Omega; Irene Taylor Heineman, Omega; Sue Barnwell, Phi, and Edith Hill Powers, Phi.

As another Founders' Day approaches, Thetas throughout the country will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Theta's oldest national service and light candles in memory of the Founders after whom the first four fellowships were named.

In what more beautiful way could Josephine Cook Lippincott have perpetuated her memory and service than through her generous legacy to the fund, offspring of her vision! Though the candle of her life flickered out, the light of the Loan and Fellowship Fund still shines through the lives of all the women, recipients of loans, awards and fellowships, whose minds and lives have been illuminated by its services.

Congratulations!

Congratulations go to the following chapters which initiated all of the girls they pledged during the last school year: Eta, Iota, Alpha Eta, Alpha Omega, Beta Upsilon, Beta Phi and Beta Psi. Their initiates were among the 1,655 girls initiated by Theta's 77 college chapters during the year.

Auditing Service Is Boon to College Chapters

Generations of college chapter treasurers will be pleased to learn that, effective this fall, the fraternity has hired an auditing firm for the service of its college chapters.

Under the new financial arrangements with the firm of Oldham and Gouwens in Chicago, college chapter treasurers will have less work to do and much more assistance in keeping the financial records in order. Each chapter pays a charge for this auditing service.

Minnesota's Contemporary-Style Home

was instrumental in keeping the girls' spirits high, and even though rushing was done in a borrowed home, under difficult circumstances, the girls did a superb job and got their quota.

To the other members of the board, we also wish to express our gratitude: Adalia Kohl Fraser, Elizabeth Bullock Bumgardner, Marie Marquart, Joan Coursolle and Mary Lou Reeder.

Sarah Kirkman, Alpha Chi chapter, who has served as budget counselor for Upsilon, as well as the Corporation Board, has been of great help in getting us on a sound financial basis.

St. Paul chapter, with its 30 members, has done an outstanding job in fund raising. During the calendar year, St. Paul has contributed over $1,100 from various fund-raising activities.

Mr. Madsen, president of the Madsen Construction, very generously donated his services. He purchased the materials for the building in advance, thus making it possible to build when materials were scarce.

We cannot forget either the work of our housemother, Mrs. Markham, who went far beyond her line of duty in moving the furniture and preparing the house for fall rushing.

And so we come to the end of our tour through the new contemporary home of Kappa Alpha Theta on the campus of the University of Minnesota. Our alumnæ, and there are a few, who were in the chapter at the time of the purchase of the residence in 1910, may point with pride to the growth and accomplishment of Upsilon in the past 41 years.

Theta Fellowship Award $1,500

For Advanced Study at Home or Abroad for 1952-53

The Loan and Fellowship Committee announces that applications will be accepted from Thetas for a fellowship to be granted for graduate study or research during 1952-53. Since four of the five previous awards have been granted to foreign students, this award will be granted to a Theta who will be free to study in the United States or abroad.

Purpose—

The purpose of this award shall be to afford the recipient opportunity to broaden her knowledge and to further her understanding of human values, through contact with people of varying cultures, so that through her leadership an enlightened attitude may be developed toward our social responsibilities.

Objectives—

- A. Should be study and/or scholarly research.
- B. Should enable the candidate to work toward a higher degree or equivalent.
- C. Extend her information and experience for advanced professional work especially in the field of human relations.

Requirements—

The candidate should have a definite project in mind, preferably having done some work on it, and must have as a minimum a bachelor's degree.

Application—

The letter of application should give age, schools attended, dates of graduations, degrees conferred, and some account of professional and community activity since graduation, together with a photograph and other pertinent data. Include with the application the following in duplicate:

1. Official transcripts of college courses and grades.
2. Recommendations from three professors with whom she studied or conducted research projects.
3. Evidence of satisfactory employment performance on a professional level, inside or outside of college, giving specific duties involved.
4. A physician's statement as to the health, past and present, and his opinion of the candidate's stamina necessary to a rigorous plan of study.
5. List of articles in magazines or books written giving title, publisher, date of research or investigation leading to advanced degree.

Send application on or before

The Importance of Fraternity Education

By KATHARINE G. MURLIN

This thought-provoking talk was one of the highlights of the District VII convention last summer. All fraternity women should consider carefully the issues it raises and suggestions it makes.

A few short years ago, the concept of fraternity education was fairly stereotyped. For undergraduates it was a matter primarily of pledge training, concerned with statistics of the fraternity and its government; for alumnæ, a type of program more or less perfunctory in order to keep abreast of the fraternity program.

I submit to you now that changing conditions, the ever-increasing pressure of anti-fraternity agitation, malicious criticism from subversive groups have brought the whole range of fraternity education into immediate prominence as a first line of defense for the entire fraternity system. Let us make no mistake about it—the rising tide of criticism is a part of the attack on our American way of life, our freedoms, our heritage of the individual's right to pursue happiness. The use of so-called liberal organizations, tolerant religious groups, etc. as fronts to conceal the real effort is the common practice. The aim is to create confusion, to stir suspicion of our existing traditions, to set class against class in bitterness and distrust. In certain areas they are succeeding very well.

Sororities are coming in for a particularly large share of this vicious attack recently, as witness the movie soon to be released and articles such as the one called "The Sorority Swindle" in Look magazine of June 5. The fact that such articles are ignorant, perverted, and vulgar distortions of the truth does not lessen their danger to us. But we must find the way to combat such forces and make them fight the battle on our ground, not theirs. You will be interested to know that the editor of Look has already received over 8,000 letters of protest over that article. An effort was made to engage the sororities in a debate over television—needless to say, such cheap promotion for Look magazine was avoided. No, we must, as individual fraternity people, accept the obligation from this very day, to be alert, and informed on these questions. We have left too much of the work of combating these arguments to the heads of our groups—Panhellenic and Interfraternity Councils. I will go further and state that I feel it to be the moral obligation of each individual, as an American citizen, to uphold our convictions in this matter. For the main attacks of the anti-fraternity argument point straight to the heart of the American Constitution.

Let us examine the points in question.

As citizens we have been guaranteed, in our Bill of Rights, the right of assembly, of free association, together with the rights of free speech, free press, free thought, etc. as set forth in Articles I to VIII. These are our personal social rights as distinguished from our political rights as set forth in the Constitution, and are no less important or sacred to us than the freedom to vote, to hold office, to be tried by our equals. These rights are inherent in our democracy as we know it and live it. And so, when our critics cry "discrimination" and "undemocratic restriction," let us first ask: "Whose definition of discrimination?" and "Whose definition of democracy?"

Let us stand squarely and say: "Since when have discrimination and selectivity in their true interpretation been undemocratic?" Exclusiveness is not undemocratic so long "as there is no denial of any civil, political, economic or property rights, or of the equal protection of the laws."

We are educated so that we may be more discriminating in the true sense of the word. The discernment of the intelligent and disciplined mind is the goal of our educational system. Of equal importance in our social contacts is the training for making the truly discriminating choice. This freedom of choice and association go hand in hand in our American way of life. One week ago today this article appeared in the Los Angeles Times. A report on the forum composed of both Greek and non-org representatives from colleges in this area. Their conclusion is evident in the headline: "Forum Agrees Greek Units Not Undemocratic." I shall quote further only to note that they agree there is no substitute on the modern college campus for the Greek organizations. Such a report should be encouraging to us, as young adults begin to penetrate the maze of loose thinking currently confusing the issues.

After all, there is a basic principle of jurisprudence involved also—namely that no individual has the inherent right to belong to any organization he chooses. The group has the right to set up standards of membership, restrictive clauses, if you please, and the would-be member must present adequate qualifications for admission.

The problem of restrictive clauses has reached a climax on several campuses, notably Connecticut, Michigan, Minnesota and Washington, where the effort is being made to force organizations to remove restrictive clauses or leave the campus. I should like to quote directly from a report by the president of Phi Kappa fraternity. You may recall that the Phi Kappa fraternity is restricted to a membership belonging to the Catholic faith, and is comparable to Acacia, a similar organization restricted to the Masonic order. Such limitations place these organizations in minority groups, but they are no less concerned by the pressure than larger groups. I quote:

"Any institutional domination that compels the admission of an individual into such a social organization, without regard to race, creed, or color, would be an arbitrary enforcement of social intercourse, and when educational institutions could dictate who was to be admitted or excluded from membership into a social fraternity and the number of members to be taken from each race, creed, color, or nationality—such action would be social tyranny! But don't be surprised if you hear such brazen demands being shouted."

I should like to see a tangible compilation of constructive arguments set forth on a high level in our own fraternity, for use by our chapters everywhere. Such a program could be of immeasurable help both to our college girls and our alumnae.

The picture is not all dark, however, and I want to quote to you from the statement from Cornell University in regard to the fraternity problem.

"A great university derives its strength and stature from adherence to the principles of freedom in a democratic society. The community of a great university, therefore, must embrace individuals, groups, and organizations which are vastly different and which exist for a variety of purposes. There are at Cornell over 250 clubs and associations which result from student initiatives. These include fraternities, sororities, religious clubs, political clubs, honor societies, and many other organizations. Some have wider acceptance than others, but all exist in the spirit of tolerance and diversity.

Cornell University is a corporate body which was founded in the spirit of tolerance. Groups within this university are, therefore, free to constitute, reconstitute, and conduct themselves in keeping with their own preferences so long as their existence does not corrupt the spirit of the university's existence.

The right of free association is an essential of democracy. This is the basis and the strength of the fraternities, sororities, and other varied organizations in the university."

If only such strong statements would be forthcoming from the heads of all our universities across the country!

Now, in what other ways are we to implement ourselves? Let me make three suggestions:

First, let us make an added effort truly to know our fraternity, its government, its aims, its policies, its projects. Let us keep informed as to the excellent ideas and directives coming continually from the loyal and inspired group of women who comprise our council, our national and district offices.

Second, let us strive for a more realistic and constructive approach to public relations. We have so much to be proud of—our philanthropies and activities in the public interest. They do not, in my opinion, come in for a fair share of public attention. Fraternities as a whole seem to enjoy better public relations than sororities; yet their philanthropies are admittedly negligible. Perhaps we have been so busy doing our good work—so busy perfecting ourselves—we forget that the general public is unenlightened as to these activities. It is something to work toward in every publicity effort.

And last, let us, each one, pledge herself anew to the high moral leadership to which we, as Thetas, are dedicated in our ritual. It summons us to the finest qualities of which we are capable, and we dare not ignore it. If I know my fraternity, we will accept that challenge and go forward together.

Scholarship Badge Is Now Available

An original Kappa Alpha Theta badge, cast from one of the old Neuman Company dies, is now available to chapters for use as a scholarship badge through the L. G. Balfour Company.

The scholarship badge, larger in size than the official badge, may be purchased only by chapters and only for the purpose of making it an award to be given each year for high scholastic attainment.

Price of the badge is $18.50 plus 20% Federal Tax and your state's use tax.

Adelphi Chapter Becomes Inactive

Alpha Kappa chapter at Adelphi college voluntarily turned in its chapter charter this fall. The many loyal alumnae of the chapter will join Grand Council in regret that lack of material in the college necessitated this step.

Originally a college for women, Adelphi became coeducational after World War II, with a consequent change in the constituency of its student body. It was this change which necessitated the loss of Alpha Kappa chapter.

Language Rehabilitation Wheel Whirls into Action at Institute

Each revolution of the language rehabilitation wheel at the Institute of Logopedics means another citizen restored to independent living in a speaking world. Speech is the lifeblood of our modern civilization—essential to independent living—to each individual's pursuit of happiness—in procuring an education—in winning a mate—and in obtaining a job.

At the Institute of Logopedics, speech is the hub of the language rehabilitation wheel and research its axle. Professional training is represented in the rim and encircles the total program. Each spoke of the wheel forms a vital part of this total rehabilitation program which is designed for the physical, educational, emotional, and spiritual welfare of those receiving language rehabilitation at the Institute's model center in Wichita. Each phase of the program revolves around language and has been designed to aid in the total rehabilitation and restoration of the speech handicapped to independent citizenship.

The Institute's medical program is geared for improving and maintaining the health of each child, since optimal health is basic to learning ability. The medical department includes a medical director, an otologist, two registered nurses and a cerebral palsy specialist who supervises the medical program for the cerebral palsied cases.

Routine psychometric tests are determining factors in the evaluation of each individual child's ability to learn. Often these tests ferret out important personality difficulties which could impede progress.

Special education facilities are available at the Institute for cerebral palsied, aphasic and hard of hearing children too badly handicapped to attend public schools. The classroom teachers have a logopedics background as well as their educational training and are thus able to adapt the program to suit the particular needs of each child.

Physical therapy guides the children in learning control of the larger muscles involved in sitting, standing and walking—physical accomplishments which are essential to independent living. Skill in controlling the larger, gross muscles in the feet and legs will also aid in eventual control of the finer muscles involved in speech.

The Occupational Therapy department at the Institute endeavors to utilize the language being taught in the speech training room and to incorporate it into a new and interesting program. Functional self-help activities are given to the cerebral palsied. These include activities for feeding, dressing and the development of motor skills necessary for learning. Sometimes newly learned skills in the Citizen's Workshop of occupational therapy, unveil aptitudes which may eventually lead to a future vocation.

"A home away from home" is established for those children whose families are unable to accompany them to the Institute. The bright, cheerful apartments in the Institute Village, the warmth and interest of a second mother—a housemother—provide security and comfort for these lonely youngsters. Thus, a successful integration of language into every day living is made possible.

Communication barriers sometimes disappear on the playground swings or the sliding boards which are in abundance throughout the Institute Village. Square dancing or a heated game of ping-pong in the Recreation Room, located in the Theta Court, sometimes releases the speech barriers of the stutterer, relaxes the complicated language tensions of the cerebral palsied, and breaks through the great wall of silence surrounding the speechless. Often, recreation activities take the children to the outside world—to a circus or a rodeo.

Sometimes the outside world comes to the Institute Village—through a puppet show or the visit of a movie star from filmdom. Thus, the Institute's recreational program makes possible the integration of language into social activities. It also furnishes these youngsters with moments of happiness, moments which will live on in their memories and give them added courage in facing the difficult days ahead.

A philosophy of life—a faith to live by—both are essential to the speech handicapped.

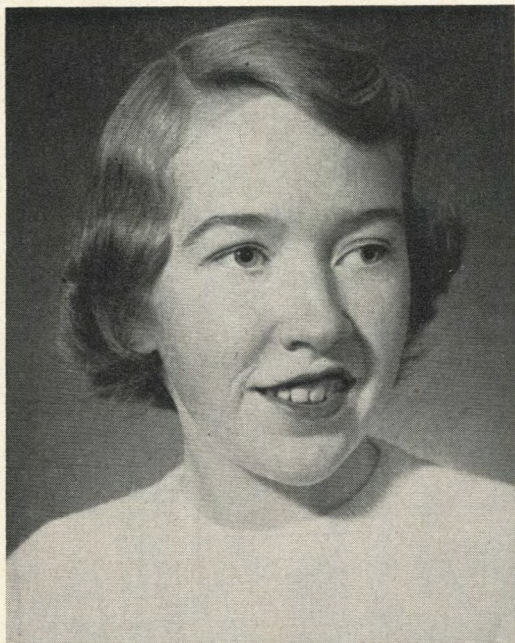

REHABILITATION THROUGH LANGUAGE

INSTITUTE OF LOGOPEDICS

For some, total rehabilitation will not be possible. These must learn to live with their handicaps for a lifetime, to still the emotional and mental war within themselves and to live in peace and harmony with their fellowman. The spiritual lives of these handicapped boys and girls are directed by the Institute's chaplain. Each Sunday as the organ swells through the improvised chapel in the Institute Village, the speech handicapped come to worship together, to offer their voiceless prayers for a faith to live by, a philosophy of life to sustain them.

Language Rehabilitation

Each phase of the program at the Institute of Logopedics makes a significant contribution to the total rehabilitation designed for the speech handicapped. The heart of the program, the axle of research, is also of vital importance to the progress and growth of this highly specialized field. Increased research opportunities have been made possible by improved equipment and physical facilities and by the increase in number and types of cases available for study. Thus, the Institute's research program is leading to significant contributions in the reclaiming of human lives.

Revolution of the language rehabilitation wheel is dependent upon the professional training which forms the rim of the wheel and encircles the total program. The Institute's present facilities make it possible for 300 young men and women to be in training at all times. B.A. and M.A. degrees in Logopedics are conferred by Wichita university. Dr. Martin F. Palmer, director of the Institute, serves as head of the Logopedics department at the University. Although the Institute's training program will

Washington Establishes Memorial Award

Alpha Lambda chapter at the University of Washington in Seattle has recently established a memorial award in memory of Barbara Ann Marshall, a January, 1951 initiate of the chapter.

The "Barbara Ann Marshall Trophy," a scholarship cup presented by the classes of 1952 and 1953, will be inscribed each year with the name of the freshman who has maintained the highest scholarship throughout the year.

Barbara Ann, who died last September after a long illness, maintained the highest scholarship in her freshman class during the two quarters that she was able to be in school.

assure the rehabilitation of many speech handicapped individuals, it cannot begin to alleviate the crucial need for scientifically trained personnel to aid the some 4,000,000 persons suffering from speech handicaps.

The language rehabilitation wheel at the Institute of Logopedics gains new momentum as it whirls into the fall schedule with a caseload of 1,023 speech handicapped children and adults who are in training at the Institute and its 15 field centers. With each sweeping movement of the wheel, another citizen is being restored to independent living—to his individual pursuit of happiness in a speaking world.

College Chapters Keep Busy!

Chapter letters marked with asterisks have earned bonus points for their chapters in the magazine-sponsored competition for college chapters.

Alberta

Despite the fact that Old Man Winter has visited the Alberta campus early this year, there are happy smiles on all the Theta faces, for we have five wonderful new pledges following second year rushing. The new pledges are: Evelyn Hage, Marilyn Hymas, Florence Long, Audrey Rigeaux and Helen Swainson. Pledging services were held on Oct. 21.

Delta Upsilon fraternity invited our chapter to work with them on a float for the annual Varsity Football Parade on Oct. 13. Although the Wauneita society, the club which encompasses all the women students on this campus, walked off with the trophy, we all had a very good time.

Warm clothing and hot coffee were "musts" when the Thetas and the Phi Kappas defied the cold winds and went on a wiener roast on Oct. 14.

We have been deeply touched by the charming little letters we have received from the little Italian refugee that the Inter-Fraternity Council has "adopted." This has been a very gratifying project.

Initiation will be held the weekend of Oct. 27 and first year rushing is the period of Nov. 21 to 30, so Beta Chi is going to be busy in the next little while. October 26

PAT O'HARA

Allegheny

As soon as the fall semester started, Mu pledged Rachel Dodds and Marlen Rafferty. Then after a successful rush week, we filled our quota with 15 sophomores. The pledges are: Betty Bender, Jean Fellows, Carol Hefren, Carol Hess and Nancy Johnston all of Pittsburgh; Beverly Bixler, Beaver; Nancy Dubrowsky, Lakewood, O.; Mary Lindbeck, Jamestown, N.Y.; Harriet McCafferty, Butler; Pat Port, Brookville; Marion Shryock, Meadville; Shirley Smith, Reynoldsville; Dorothy June Stover, Lancaster, and Gloria Thompson, Butler.

On Oct. 14, we had our pledge picnic at Bousson, the Allegheny Wildlife Preserve. Games, dinner, skits, dancing and impromptu singing filled the afternoon and evening with laughter and a good time for all.

With transfer rushing, Father's Weekend, and a fireside featuring the Dean of Students, Charles W. McCracken, the Thetas here at Allegheny will indeed be busy for the next few weeks.

October 31

JOAN DICKIE

Arizona

Returning Thetas this fall were greeted by a much improved chapter house. A beautiful newly decorated dining room with soundproofed walls and new chairs and tables is now one of the loveliest rooms in the house. New chairs and lamps in the living room, plus a new shuffle board court in the patio, revealed further the hard work of the alumnae during the summer.

Our rush week, one of the most successful we have had, was climaxed by the pledging of these 30 girls: Marty Chambers, Jean Matteson and Barbara Berquist, all of Tucson; Donna Decker, Long Beach, Calif.; Connie Oldershaw, Spokane, Wash.; Cynthia Dunbar and Barbara Mitchell, Scottsdale; Sharon Smith, Janice Gregory, Joan Wing, Kay Jacobson, Pat Kunze and Dianne and Darlene Flickinger, all of Phoenix; Tillie Haggerty, Kansas City, Mo.; Pam Mueth, Springfield, Ill.; Susie Shafer (sister of Sara), Lake Forest, Ill.; Mary Jean McGregor, Astoria, Ore.; Nancy Laverty and Betty Marx, both of Beverly Hills, Calif.; Carol Cravath, Los Angeles; Betty Dammier, Amarillo, Tex.; Nancy Johnson (sister of Marge) and Carol McGuire, both of Pasadena, Calif.; Dottie Van Gilder, Denver, Colo.; Marcia Livingston, Oxnard, Calif.; Bets Beneker, Chicago; Bonnie McFarland, Coolidge; Sally Hallburg, Willmette, Ill., and Ann Potter, San Francisco.

Two weeks after pledging we had our traditional openhouse to which all fraternity men and independents were invited. The pledges were honored again on Oct. 23 at a dinner party given for them by the alumnae.

Initiation was held on Oct. 14 for eight girls: Ruth Askey, Joan Bryan, Donna Bullard, Helen Ann Clark, Jane Elliott, Carolyn Mitchell, Julie Rockefeller and Charlyn Scott. The new initiates were honored with a dinner party following the ceremony.

We welcome as new transfers Marilyn Hughes, Alpha Gamma, and Marge Marvel, Alpha Gamma. On Oct. 29 Marion Meisner, Alpha Gamma, and Zanier Downs, Gamma Delta, affiliated with Beta Delta. The loss of Ann Leahy to the Alpha Chi chapter is felt by all.

To start the new term off right, the Thetas won the swimming cup. Darlene Flickinger, a pledge, won the cup for being the outstanding woman swimmer.

Two other additional cups are in the trophy room. At the A. W. S. Carnival last spring we presented an Hawaiian skit with ukelele players, hula dancers, barkers and girls selling leis. The result of this work and play was a first place cup. Two weeks later a contest was held on the campus for the purpose of cleaning up the debris on "A" Mountain. Under Barbara Bitter's supervision, we won this contest and trophy.

At the annual Women's Day function last spring, our house was honored by having five girls, Cynthia Clements, Jean Elrod, Claire Rawhouser, Kay Mason and Mary Jo Wimberley, named to Spurs, sophomore women's honorary. Mary Fennemore was chosen for F. S. T., junior women's honorary, and Beverly Clark and Canice Gardner were tapped by Mortar Board. Suzy DeMoure was elected A. W. S. secretary and is our candidate this term for Homecoming Queen.

Beside the graduating seniors, we feel the absence of Janet Barnes, Janet Chambers, Debbie Dunseath, Betty Funk, Canice Gardner, Kathy Hobbs, Mary Muzzarelli, Mina Pacheco, Barbara Rosenberg, Nancy Murray, Sis Strehlow, Mariel Tyler, Mary Hodges, Sallie Sebree, Nan Walton and Lorraine Yeck. Most of these girls are living near Tucson, so we are able to see them frequently.

We are now busy with Homecoming preparations, class elections in which three Thetas are running, and mid-semester exams.

October 22

CISSY JEWETT

Beloit

Gamma Lambda is delighted with her 23 new pledges. They are: Bonnie Applequist, Rockford, Ill.; Janet Bareis, Nachusa, Ill.; Virginia Blevins, Chicago; Sylvia Burke, Lake Forest, Ill.; Gloria Ehrett, Lake Geneva; Joan Eisha, Oak Park, Ill.; Joan Gabel, River Forest, Ill.; Elaine Georgiades, Park Forest, Ill.; Phyllis Herndon, Springfield, Ill.; Pat Higgins, Decatur, Ill.; Shirley Ingels, Mt. Sterling, Ill.; Joellyn Laird, Mt. Prospect, Ill.; Clara Pingon, Franklin, Ky.; Suzanne Reynolds, Fort Atkinson; Nancy Risney, Wauwatosa; Virginia Rahr, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Deborah Rowbotham, Walworth; Dorothy Wright, Westchester, Ill., and Myrtle Yamamoto, Maui, T.H.

Upperclass women pledged included: Barbara Barrett, Grand Island, Nebr.; Patricia Cromwell, Rockford, Ill., and Jean Miller and Julia Whitehead, both of Beloit. After pledging we celebrated with a pledge banquet at a Beloit restaurant.

Myrtle Yamamoto was chosen queen of the freshman mixer and was later elected secretary of her class.

Kappa Alpha Theta day at Beloit, otherwise called Homecoming, was loads of fun for the chapter. We won first place and received a trophy for our spider "spinning to win" on our front porch. Our downtown window decorations, painted by Eileen O'Neill and Molly Simpson, won us a 25 dollar first prize.

On Oct. 14 Gamma Lambda honored her wonderful alumnae groups from Milwaukee, South Chicago, Rockford and Beloit with a tea.

On Oct. 24 we initiated Margaret Edwards, Jane Hinman, Mary Langley, Marcia Sick and Barbara Stewart. That night a dinner was held in their honor.

October 26

MARGARET EDWARDS

British Columbia

The big round of social events and ceremonies since the beginning of rushing in September has finally slowed up a bit. Commencing with a coke party, followed by a tea a few days later, the crowning event of rushing was our closed party which took the form of a circus theme. Resplendent in circus costumes and chatting over the strains of calliope music, Thetas entertained more than 40 rushees with bingo, darts, other games and a floor show.

At the close of rushing we pledged six girls: Jill Say, Shirley Stralendorff, Doris Strachan, Wendy Martin, Ann MacLaren and Helen McCurrach. We were proud to present them at the annual campus Pledges on Parade Ball.

The pledges displayed their talents and ingenuity in a bar-maid floor show act at their "Suppressed Desire" pledge party. Pledges, members and alumnae all turned up in costumes appropriate to that theme.

In early November we held an inter-sorority tea at the home of Jane Graham. Our guests were two members from each of the other sororities on campus.

Beta Upsilon members are active on campus this year. Shiela Stewart is president of Panhellenic and a member of Delta Sigma Pi, honorary sorority. Mary Chadwick, who has her own radio program and is a free lance radio actress for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, has a role in the play, "The Ascent of F6," an English department production.

Jan Olson is assisting with the directing of choreography for the annual Mardi Gras which will be held in January. One of the biggest events of the college year here, it is a combined effort of all Greeks on campus. Three of the 25 girls picked for the chorus line are Thetas: Betty Browne, Lee Bloedel and Jill Say.

A recent visitor to our chapter was our new district president, Mrs. Krohn. Among the functions arranged for her visit was a luncheon at which she was entertained by the pledges.

November 2

MARY CHADWICK

Butler

The Senior Luncheon, honoring the 11 graduating seniors, was held last June at the Indianapolis Athletic club. Joan Coxen and Barbara Burchfield received activity pins, and Barbara received the scholarship pin. Also awarded were scholarship pins to the freshman and sophomore with the highest grade point averages. Doris Graham and Ann Fuller were the happy recipients.

When we returned to the house this September we found that the alumnae and the Mothers' club had purchased new draperies and a rug for the dining room and draperies for the trophy room. Also, the kitchen had been redecorated and a new refrigerator added. We certainly appreciate all the wonderful improvements.

Under the leadership of Jan Sisson, rush chairman, and Kathy Zehe, out-of-town rush chairman, we had a most successful rush. On Sept. 8, 16 girls received their ribbons: Carolyn Aldrich, Helen Middleton, Barbara Hyde, Katie Lowe, Sara Jane Clark, Sally de Vaney, Mary Landers, Jo Ann Meyer, Loretta Smock, Marge Peeling, Delores Peterson, all of Indianapolis; Polly Burbank, Dalton, Mass.; Margie Lee Campbell, Fulton, N.Y.; Susan Fox, Vincennes; Pat Martin, Rushville, and Joan Reis, Homewood, Ill.

The Panhellenic dinner was held Sept. 12 in the John W. Atherton Center. At the dinner each pledge received a Gamma ring. Later a slumber party was held at the house to help us become better acquainted with our new pledges. On Oct. 7, we held an openhouse to introduce the pledges to the campus.

We have not been lacking in social functions. Almost every week we have had exchange dinners or barbecues with different fraternities on campus. Our pledges and the Delta Tau Delta pledge class surprised both our chapters with a Halloween party on Oct. 24.

Norma Stultz was Coed Counselor chairman for the W.R.A. At Homecoming, Ann Hall represented us as a queen candidate and we received honorable mention for our house decorations. Mary Gianakos was our candidate for "Witch" at the W.R.A. Halloween dance held Oct. 31.

Proud new wearers of the Theta kite, initiated September 31, are: Paula Baumgartner, Ginna Davis, Mary Gianakos, Rozie Izor, Marilyn Prince, Babs Schulmeyer, Marge Tarkington, Barbara Walsh, Nancy Nell Walker, Carolyn Tudor, Janet Statton, Judy Manning, Mickey McCormick, Dottie McClamrock and Martha Katzenburger.

October 31

MARGA CARTER

California

Rushing began soon after our return to college in September, and on Sept. 29 we entertained parents, friends and fraternity chapters at "Presents," introducing our pledges.

Our freshman pledges are: Patricia Porter, Margot Rees, Elizabeth Vincent, Joyce Williams, Sherrill Blessing and Sheila Derieg, all of Piedmont; Nancy Poe, Berkeley; Eleanor Gramatky, Sacramento; Deborah Geering, Carmel; Barbara Clymer, Marin; Sharon Viault, Westwood; Marilyn Patterson, Burlingame, and Marion Fitzhugh, San Francisco. Our sophomore pledge is Ann Teel of San Francisco, and our juniors are Antoinette Lynch of Marin and Barbara Fletcher of San Marino.

In addition, we hope to affiliate the following Theta transfers: Nancy Salt from the University of Washington at Seattle, Dorothy Dunbar from the University of Nevada and Sally Sipherd from Santa Barbara.

On Oct. 13 we had a luncheon for our House association, and on Oct. 17 we entertained the Mothers' club at a luncheon and fashion show with the girls modelling knit dresses. This affair was in lieu of the "Autumn Benefit."

Recently we had a post-Halloween exchange with the Sigma Nus. We all enjoyed a grand evening of dining and dancing at La Honda Bowl. On Oct. 22 our seniors joined forces with the Kappa Sigs for a surprise "Senior Sneak."

Openhouses after each football game have been fun and have given us a good opportunity to entertain informally alumnae and friends.

We are very proud of our improved scholarship, particularly since our rating is now second on campus among the Panhellenic groups.

We are also proud of Mitzi Spence and Nancy Robinson who were elected to Panile, a sophomore honor society.

Mrs. Miller, Grand Alumnae Secretary, was our guest last month. We benefited both by making a new friend and by her helpful suggestions concerning the chapter. Her stimulating talk at chapter meeting gave all of us a renewed interest in our philanthropic projects.

No letter received.

California at Santa Barbara

Not a dull moment since rushing the beginning of the semester! As we have immediate rushing now, we began housecleaning and redecorating two weeks before school. We are very proud of our new pledge class with its 14 members.

Six new members were initiated Oct. 6 and then honored at a dinner at El Cortijo, a colorful restaurant just outside Santa Barbara. Because this first after-initiation dinner was such a success, we plan on making it a tradition.

On Oct. 13 the alumnae held a Harvest Dance at the Country Club. Both college and townspeople attended, which was a good idea since the townspeople seldom have an opportunity to get together with us. Proceeds went to Hillside House, an institution for children who have cerebral palsy.

Homecoming was another big event on our calendar. This year the theme was "'C' Shore Hit Parade," the 'C' standing for California and the 'Shore' for our beaches. Each float represented the title of a song. Although we didn't win any prizes for our float or house decorations, we did place second in the Homecoming skits, and June Murphy, our candidate for queen, was selected as a princess.

On Halloween the alumnae gave a party for us. Everyone had a wonderful time, dressed in funny costumes and masks. Miss McCollister, our housemother, succeeded in terrifying everyone with her witch's costume and walking stick.

Now we are looking forward to presents—and to midterms which are coming much too soon.

Winding up the 1951 spring season, Theta took first place honors for the second consecutive year in the Greek Sing competition. Spring Carnival was highly successful, particularly for the Thetas who placed two of their girls, Suzanne Menger and Virginia Utz, on the carnival court of seven.

Called to Mortar Board at this time was Trudy Albright. Outstanding at the carnival, too, was the Theta booth, colorfully decorated with stuffed animals which we had made. Our annual Cotton Ball was another spring highlight, and we ended the year by naming Mary Catherine Deneen and Margot Bayley as our representatives to the convention of Districts VI and IX.

With the graduation of our past president, Mary Jo Carraher, Trudy Albright has accepted the President's gavel. Helping her on the council are Nan Metcalf, vice president; Marty Frain, recording secretary; Shirley Mattern, treasurer; Margot Bayley, corresponding secretary; Barbara Rautenberg, social chairman, and Constance Brown, Panhellenic representative.

We opened the fall season with our annual meeting in South Park, at which we discussed our social and rush plans for the year. We held three rush parties this fall: an openhouse, a mother-daughter tea and a Smorgasbord. At this last party, our Mothers' club prepared a delicious and attractive buffet table, and the Swedish theme was carried out further by Patsi Gray's clever and original place cards and favors.

Our efforts were well rewarded by the pledging of 11 girls: Elaine Anderson, Weirton, O.; Jo Ann Carman, Allison Park; Edith Engel, Canton, O.; Judith Freyberg, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Nancy Haney, Clairton; Donna Harpold, Youngstown, O.; Donna McKee, Betsy Pellegrinni and Trudy Richtarsic, all of Pittsburgh; Ann Rose, Johnstown, and Marjorie Ruttelle, Philadelphia.

We welcome the return of Barbara Yates who spent last year on the Syracuse campus. We are proud of Mary Catherine Deneen who is now president of Dormitory council.

Plans are being made for initiation and for a dinner-dance to be held on Dec. 14. Theta has chosen Trudy Albright and Barbara Rautenberg to run for Scabbard and Blade queen. The three winners will be announced at the Military Ball on Dec. 8.

With the theme, "Theta's Train Travels," Alpha Tau opened the 1951 rushing season early in September. In a four period party schedule, the Theta Train took rushees and actives to a Theta Convention at Peoria Punxtonia, the land of Oz, and Mars, and ended deep in the Ozark mountains.

For permanent passengers on Kappa Alpha Theta's train, Margaret Rei climbed aboard from Atlanta, Ga.

Nancy Slagle from Newark, N.J., and from Cincinnati came Susan Biltz, Meridith Jones, Patricia Jones, Isabel King, Virginia Klein, Polly Keck, Beverly Pochat, Jane Garvey, Mary Ann Vogle, Betty Jane Pickering, Betty Tiegel, Kathrine Hagen, Elizabeth Jacobs, Barbara Bolce, Virginia Mathews, Mary Cae Plank, Beth Bumiller, Sylvia Weise and Edith Shattuck. Three Beta Tau Thetas changed stations and we welcomed transfers Haven Jones, Joyce Lostro and Nancy Roudebush to Cincinnati.

Our pledges sold "Forget-Me-Nots" for the Disabled American Veterans as their first group project. Soon after their pledging, they copped their first trophy at the Alpha Tau Omega annual Sweepstakes, given for the new pledge classes of all the sororities. Our pledges accumulated the greatest number of points in the competitive events.

Homecoming on Oct. 27 brought many Theta alumnae back to Alpha Tau to cheer the Theta float. The chapter entertained them at an openhouse after the football game.

Our annual Sport Party was held Nov. 2, and the Christmas Pledge Formal is planned for Dec. 8 to honor the 1951 pledge class.

On the scholastic side, two Thetas, Ginny Votaw and Dorothy Frickman, were recently elected to Omicron Nu, national home economics honorary. Barbara Butsch was chosen the Panhellenic chairman of the Interfraternity Sing to be held in the spring.

Alpha Tau initiated Beverly Benton and Alicia Gentrup on Nov. 4, and transfers Ginny Votaw, Jane Basler and Nancy Roudebush were affiliated.

Beta Iota proudly pinned the black and gold ribbons on 32 pledges this fall after a successful rush season. New pledges are: Pat Ames, San Mateo, Calif.; Virginia Beresford, Margie Duff, LaRae Hehl, Carolyn Lowe and Joan Mulligan, all of Denver; Florence Black, Jersey City, N.J.; Nancy Bruce, Lakewood, Colo.; Gretchen Gilbert and Joan Hutchinson, both of Lakewood, Ohio; Grace Butler, El Monte, Calif.; Betsey Butterfield, Wauwatosa, Wis.; Billie Carper, Burlington; Ethel Copenhauer, Arcadia, Calif.; Barbara Craft, Jackson, Mich.; Joan Daunt, Ginny Frost and Gay Gilham, all of Minneapolis; Nancy Sue Dodd, Longmont; Grace Getchow, Kenilworth, Ill.; Mary Hunter, Gary, Ind.; Suzanne Olmsted, Garden City, N.Y.; Susan Pigott, Boulder; Nancy Reynolds, El Paso; Christie Russell, Socorro, N.M.; Carolyn Simpson, Tulsa, Okla.; Natalie Snell, Glencoe, Ill.; Ann Spademan, Birmingham, Mich.; Erlene Stahl, Yuma, Ariz.; Sandra Trask, Billings, Mont., and Alice Wylie, Glencoe.

No less exciting was the initiation of Mary Ellen Stacy and Shirley Gemmer on Oct. 28. Sue Laidley, whom we were sorry to see leave at the first of the semester, was initiated in Cleveland, Ohio.

We are grateful for the many helpful chapter suggestions given us by Mrs. Crawford, Grand First Vice President, when she made a flying visit here Sept. 25. We certainly enjoyed having her with us and wish she could have stayed longer.

Our chapter was turned topsy-turvy this fall when several girls didn't come back to school. We were sorry to lose Joan Cooley, Sally Schroeder, Alice Neville, Louise Pitchford, Barb Pauk, Marty McGill, Margot Hodgson, Izzy Bering, and Janie Fitzpatrick. Billie Nelson has succeeded to the presidency, and we have elected Connie Kent, vice-president, and Bev Billeter, treasurer.

Thanks to our perfect Colorado weather we've been socializing this fall. October 14 the whole chapter, the hashers, and Mrs. Durand, our housemother, drove up to Bev Billeter's cabin in the mountain for a picnic. Then on Oct. 27, Thetas from the chapter at Colorado Aggies came down for lunch; we hope that they will come again soon.

Costume parties seem to be the rage so we've had a "Kiddie Party" with the Delts and a Halloween party with our pledges. We are all looking forward to our annual Christmas formal for the pledges Dec. 15; it will be the perfect sendoff for a vacation packed with fun.

Homecoming is occupying our time now as we work madly on our house decorations and float. Mary Lou Chaffee, Polly Carroll, Ginny Goodheart, Debbie Green, Becky Hartley and Marilyn Weller are all working on the general committee.

The Gamma Zetas are again in a whirl of activity. We were pleased to receive a visit from Mrs. C. H. Shattuck, our district president. Fraternity education and the importance of member selection were stressed by Mrs. Shattuck during conferences and "fireside chats."

Tea dances are again in vogue. October 21 found Thetas and their dates setting the style for future successes.

Theta was also the scene of a tea held in honor of visiting movie stars on a nation-wide tour. We were thrilled to entertain such celebrities as Jerome Courtland, Wendell Corey, James Whitmore, F. Hugh Herbert and others.

Panayota, our Greek war orphan was re-adopted and plans made for different girls to write to her periodically. Underprivileged children from Willimantic were guests at our third annual Halloween party on Oct. 31.

During open rush last spring we pledged Mary Ann Iusso on April 5, and initiated the following girls on April 7: Jessie Armstead, Jean Buckley, Barbara Cannon, Jean Dougan, Joyce Flydal, Connie Forger, Mary Ann Hadden, Anne Kovel, Joan Martinez, Jean Meckensturm, Lourraine Morse, Helen Noyes, Carol Oglee, Fawn Pharris and Allyne Shull.

We wish also to extend our congratulations to Mortar Board member Betty Heller, who was recently initiated into Phi Kappa Phi, national honor society.

Our next initiation will be Nov. 10 when four new girls will be wearing the Theta kite. They are: Barbara Bishop, Mary Ann Iusso, Edrene Russell and Louise Wynne.

Dads' Day and Homecoming are next on the agenda, with all indications promising a full social calendar for the Gamma Zetas.

MILDRED CROWLEY

*Cornell

Iota has started out the new year with a flurry of activity. We especially enjoyed our Syracuse football weekend. Friday night before the game we invited girls from other houses and those who were eligible to enter the house under Panhellenic rushing rules to a coffee hour. Along with the singing and gaiety celebrating the end of fraternity rushing, we were able to catch up on the summer's gossip with friends we had not seen for several months.

Later that evening the first few Chis from Syracuse arrived. The next night we at last had the slumber party with the Chis that we have been planning for so many years. The party after we came in from our dates more than made up for the sleep that was lost that night.

Early in October Mrs. Munz, our district president, visited us. We were proud to show her some of the house improvements that had been made during the summer, just as later we were proud to show them off to our Ithaca alumnae who were responsible for them. We now boast of freshly painted date rooms, and expect new furniture for them soon. Some of the furniture in our living room has been re-upholstered, and our driveway has been paved to the joy of all who use it. New chrysanthemum plants in front of the house give it a colorful fall look.

Our program also included a very interesting discussion on marriage led by the Reverend Clinton Ritchie, Associate Director of Cornell United Religious Work.

Phi Kappa Psi entertained the chapter at a tea dance and dinner on Oct. 21. Following a Halloween party for the chapter on Oct. 29, we are going to join Alpha Tau Omega on Oct. 31 to help work on the lighting display for the Fall Weekend competition. We are hoping that we can again take the first prize as we did last year when we cooperated with the ATOs on the display.

We are all working on our annual Christmas

Bazaar, harder this year than ever before. In previous years we have supported one French orphan under the Foster Parents plan, but this year we have accepted the responsibility for two. The funds that go toward the support of our war orphans come from the Bazaar, so we are hoping to make a success of it this year, too.

PATRICIA MORENO

Denison

As the Beta Taus came back to Denison, they were surprised by a redecorated Wee White House. The entire downstairs had been retouched, culminating in a purple powder room! Adorning the door of this room is the Kappa Alpha Theta knocker, won last summer at convention by Marty Shorts, Haven Jones and Janet Wright for their skit, "Theta, My Reprobata." The alums had been busy over the summer, and the results were in time for rushing.

This year rushing was prolonged to four weeks due to the fact that homecoming weekend came early in October. We were exceedingly fortunate, however, in having our Grand President, Mrs. French, present at our final party, Oct. 27.

On Oct. 28 Beta Tau pledged these 29 girls: Clarissa Adams and Mary Drake, both of Birmingham, Mich.; Dawn Anthony, Lakewood; Nancy Barber, Oak Park, Ill.; Emily Beardshear, Newark; Mary Berry, New Orleans, La.; Edna Bogardus, Mt. Vernon; Charlotte Burrer and Jerusha Busken, both of Cincinnati; Christine Doner, Evanston, Ill.; Jane Geyer, Piqua; Katherine Gibbs, Westfield, N.J.; Susan Goodell, Louisville, Ky.; Janet Gordon, Granville; Ann Hazlett, Glenside, Pa.; Nansanna Hunt, Glendale, Calif.; Ann Huntington, Akron; Mary Ann Ingraham, Poland; Beverly Ann McClaren, Ashland, Ky.; Helen MacSwords, Zanesville; Susan Sholes, Middlebury, Vt.; Lynda Jane Smythe, Youngstown; Susan Starbuck, Nicasio, Calif.; Jean Taylor, Cleveland Heights; Lucille Van Domelen, Holland, Mich.; Barbara Vega, Park Ridge, Ill.; Nancy Walker, Chicago; Ann West, Wilmington and Judith Whaley, Shaker Heights.

Homecoming weekend saw the return of many alumnae and the long anticipated change of the name of our alumnae chapter from Chi Psi Theta Alumnae association to Beta Tau of Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae association. The theme of homecoming was Scottish since Denison played Wooster college, with the decorations incorporating song titles. Our house carried the slogan, "I've 'Scot' You Under My Skin," and featured an Indian holding a ball over a fallen Scotsman. Saturday evening a banquet was given for all alumnae and the entire chapter.

The weekend of Nov. 3 is Dad's Day and will be celebrated with a luncheon banquet for the girls and their fathers. The new pledge class plans to provide the entertainment.

October 30

MARY BROOKS

DePauw

With two months of school behind us already, we can "ring out three cheers" for our new pledge class. Those with pledge pins are: Carla Andrews, Vincennes; Ann Blew, Orland Park, Ill.; Lalla Boswell, Rochester; Ann Cockfield, Aurora, Ill.; Mary Condon, Rockford, Ill.; Cindy Coyle, Huntington; Marty Dehner, Elwood; Mae Denbo, South Bend; Ann Greer, Mount Vernon, and Marcia Hanson, Milwaukee. Others are: Jane Kissinger, Decatur, Ill.; Jane Mills, Goshen; Marilou Morrell, Park Ridge, Ill.; Barbie Nutt, Moline, Ill.; Frances Russell, Greensburg; Janet Sage, Indianapolis; Naomi Sjostrom, River Forest, Ill.; Barbie Tappan, Paxton, Ill., and Cecilia Walker and Mary Ellen Wheeler, both of Chicago.

Rush went well despite the handicap of the house not being quite ready for our return in September. On the afternoon that rush began any observer could detect some very bewildered faces wandering around the house saying, "Just look at the Founder's Room! What are we going to do?" What confusion we had! But now the room is nearing completion and really does look beautiful. The walls and draperies are a gooseberry green, while the furniture is predominantly maroon and other shades of green.

We are also proud of one of our accomplishments for 1951-52, especially so since it is the tenth consecutive year for this honor. Every fall at DePauw we have an intersorority swimming meet, and again this year we were successful in bringing home the trophy. Even the non-swimmers, completely clothed, dived into the pool and swam a length after the results were announced. 'Twas a happy day!

Our annual faculty supper was a tremendous success again this fall with faculty, housemothers, alumnae and Thetas all enjoying themselves thoroughly. We entertained over 200 guests for a buffet supper in the house.

Beta Kappa's rush week, under the leadership of Cleo Jean Meredith, was climaxed with the pledging of 11 girls: Carol Badgley, Park Ridge, Ill.; Janet Hedges, Hedrick; Sally McPherrin, Omaha, Neb., and Gloria Graham, Jean Cunningham. Sylvia Houser, Mary Helen Ruiz, Alice Sandblom, Nancy Schott, Norma Wiklund and Barbara Potts, sister of Hazel Potts Rule, all of Des Moines.

This year Grace Dunn is president of Phi Sigma Iota, honorary Romance languages; Margie Voltmer is president of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education, and Carole Hedges is president of Canterbury club and secretary of Philosophy club. Margie Voltmer and Eleanor Nicoll were both elected to National Collegiate Who's Who and Margie also is a member of the Homecoming Queen's court. Janice Carlson is again a cheerleader this year. Beverly Austin, Norma Wiklund and Sylvia Houser are active in Modern Dance club. Beverly is president and Norma is secretary. Janice Carlson, Carol Badgley and Janet Hedges are members of Barker's club, the new pep squad on campus.

New chapter officers are Carole Hedges, pledge trainer, and Louise Rouse, treasurer.

We are looking forward to the Alpha Phi Omega Quartet contest in November. Members of our quartet are Norma Wikelund, Nancy Johnson and Charlotte and Shirley Curtis. Janet Hedges accompanies them.

Fall initiates will include Alberta Hoskins, Joan Stratner, Patricia Rozell and Marlene Seiger.

CAROLE HEDGES

*Duke

First semester began on a bright note this fall when Thetas returned to campus to find the chapter room repainted and completely redecorated in a grey, coral, and chartreuse Chinese modern theme. Most of the planning had been done during the summer by the room chairman, Marcia Carmichael, who also painted several pictures for the walls.

This brand new room furnished the background for the excitement of the parties and open houses during rushing, and Oct. 11 was the scene of rejoicing when Beta Rho welcomed its new pledge class. Now wearing the black and gold are: Cookie Ballard, Owings Mills, Md.; Kim Barrows, Webster Groves, Mo.; Meb Benton, Saco, Maine; Sue Brooks and Liz Murdock of Durham, N.C.; Trish Brown, Alexandria, Va.; Judy Clarke, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Ann Henson, Atlanta, Ga.; Cinny Impey, Garden City, N.Y.; Sally Jenkins, Somerville, N.J.; Judy LeFever and Jane Perry, Columbus, Ohio; Gail McGiehan, Hartsdale, N.Y.; Marilyn McKeeman, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Jane Rutherford, Falls Church, Va., and Dorie Sherbano, Highland Park, Ill.

A pledge breakfast, coffees before meeting, and a big sister dinner given by the pledges have been tops on this year's social calendar. A chicken dinner celebration was held in the room Nov. 11, following the initiation of our newest kite flyers, Mary Lib Coffee and Linda Watkins.

Proving the point that beauty and brains go together, Molly Bixby and JoAnne Cannon were received as members of the Homecoming Court and Phi Beta Kappa in the same week.

Beta Rho is proud of its scholarship standing which is second on campus and proud, too, of its campus leaders: Fay Cobb, vice-president of Student Government; Ann Gunderson, treasurer of Student Government; Lee McGill, chairman of the Campus Chest Drive; Carrel Powers, president of Sandals; Nancy Runyan, chairman of Social Standards Committee, and Alice Yourmans, president of the Senior class.

At the end of last year, the Thetas at Tallahassee added a few more trophies to their mantel. We were overjoyed when we won the intramurals cup and the Sigma Chi Derby. Also, Jackie Morris was crowned Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

On June 11 Jackie Wenger and Carole Peterson were initiated at our District Convention.

Beta Nu started out the fall semester with a bang. On Oct. 2 we pledged 18 girls. They were: Mildred Burroughs and Jeanne Parker, Jacksonville; Joan Carson and Charlotte Hardy, West Palm; Joan Edwards, Pensacola; Jeanne Hailey, Terese Vernon and Shelley Parker, St. Augustine; Donna Lou Harper, Sanford; Ann Hayes and Sara Hollingsworth, Tampa; Jo Ann Hutto and Kathleen Veal, Tallahassee; Sandra Lund, Janet Stark and Nancy Wehner, Daytona Beach; Angie Pender, Miami, and Mary Beth McDonell, High Springs.

Already honors are being bestowed this fall. Claire Kenyon has the lead in the student musical, "Sandspur," one of the biggest honors here at F.S.U. Ardis Bourland is now a member of Judiciary and Tarpon club.

In October we gave a tea for our new housemother, Mrs. Stanley Vernay. Members of the faculty and other housemothers were invited.

Nancy Vaughn, a transfer from Kentucky, has recently been affiliated with our chapter. Julie Moore, a Theta from Butler has also transferred to F.S.U.

Despite Athens' "famous" rainy weather, we had the best rush week ever. Our new pledge class includes: Nancy Cooney, Augusta; Mary Alice McDowell, Decatur; Carol Skeels (daughter of Betty), Miami, Fla.; Adrienne Armstead, Nancy Church, Sally Frost, Julie Gay, Dorothy Laird, Charlotte Rife and Joan Burns, all of Atlanta; Frances Atkinson, Carol Cole, Pat Embry and Daisy Jane Robinson, all of College Park; Betty Foster, Wadley; Jane Hannah, Toledo, Ohio; Joanne Johns, Brunswick; Nancy Morrissey, Savannah; Donna Belle Robinson, Chevy Chase, Md.; Emily Rutland, LaGrange; Virginia Anne Hulme, Marietta, and Regina Gleason and Shirley Gleason, Chattanooga, Tenn.

The entire class was presented to the campus at our annual pledge dance which was held at the chapter house. The theme, "We Introduce To You," was carried out by gold silhouettes of each new girl.

We are proud of the six Thetas who made the Tennis club this year. They are Joann Kemp, Eleanor Ellis, Dorothy Laird, Joanne Johns, Erskine Forgy and Lucille Richardson. We also have three new members of Dolphin club. They are Marquin Conklin, Sally Frost and Dorothy Laird.

Donna Belle Robinson has been chosen sweetheart of the Chi Psi chapter and is in the final judging for Miss Homecoming. Donna and Jane Hannah both were in the recent Pandora Beauty Review.

Two new chapter officers were elected this fall. Judy Adams was elected treasurer and Eleanore Ellis was elected recording secretary. Dora Ann Clayton was initiated into Theta sisterhood.

Plans are now being made for the decorations for Homecoming this weekend.

Idaho

On Oct. 19 members of Beta Theta welcomed these new pledges into our midst: Shirley Bates, Barbara Bonner, Elinor Coleman, Joyce Danielson, Denise Darwin, Dorothy Diehl, Mary Ann Evans, Janice Foedish, Florence Garrett, Judith Haltom, Rosella Kelly, JoAnn Luck, Nancy Neveau, Caryle Pence, Jane Querna, Rosemary Rowell, Thelma Rudolph, Donna Shively, Mary Gwen Weeks and Margaret White.

Members were delighted, upon returning to school, to find a brand new shower room and re-decorated chapter room awaiting us, thanks to the Corporation Board.

On Sept. 24, Peggy Patton was welcomed into Beta Theta upon her initiation.

The annual fireside honoring big and little sisters was arranged by the sophomores and held Oct. 8. Entertainment was provided by Joyce Fisher.

Idaho Thetas drove to Washington State college Oct. 11 to a dinner exchange with Alpha Sigma chapter. The evening was culminated with some excellent entertainment; however, much time was spent "getting together" and exchanging news.

Preparations for the weekend of Oct. 20 ended with a huge welcome mat and a shining house to welcome our fathers to the annual Dad's Day game, dance and open-house. Beta Theta added another trophy to her growing collection for having the most "Dads" present.

The pledges were the guests-of-honor at a semi-formal dance held in the chapter house Oct. 27. Ship railing, anchors, lifebuoys and a big silver ship's wheel characterized the general theme, "U.S.S. Theta."

Queen candidates this fall were Florence Garrett for Sigma Alpha Epsilon Queen of Violets; Elinor Coleman for Alpha Tau Omega Esquire Girl, and Janice Morgan who was a candidate for Homecoming Queen.

Beta Theta is proud of the following girls for their accomplishments in the activities line: Janet Fulton, besides being the house president this year, serves on the Associated Student Body's Executive Board, is a member of Mortar Board, and serves as vice president of the Associated Women Students. Barbara Pearce, Ann Morgan and Jane Perry were chosen to be Spurs this year; Charlotte Henry, Mary Kay Johnson, and Ann and Jean Royer were tapped by Phi Chi Theta, national business honorary; Joyce Fisher was accepted by the women's music fraternity, Sigma Alpha Iota; Nadine Tisdall and Pat Rambo were tapped by Kappa Delta Pi, national education honorary. Alpha Epsilon Delta, national pre-med honorary, tapped Dorothy Sylvester for membership, and Alpha Lambda Delta, national underclass women's honorary chose Jane Perry and Marilyn Bauer as members.

Another year is here, and with it another fine pledge class. This year it is 18 girls strong. They are: Sue Anderson, Oak Park; Jerry Bond and Sally Zang, both of Peoria; Suzanne Gilbert, Dayton, Ohio; Ruth Jeanne Dickson, Gary, Ind.; Doris Drew, Kenilworth; Judy Gerstenberger, Galesburg; Anne Sifferd and Judy Hoggatt, both of Urbana; Mary Kent, Champaign; Kathryn Kile, Homewood; Evelyn McCreery, Jacksonville; Nancy Nickol, Wilmette; Susan Olmstead, Battle Creek, Mich.; Galey Shappert, Belvidere; Elizabeth Starr, Decatur; Gloria Steger, Rock Hill, Mo., and Donna Wilson, Chicago.

Doris Ann Bivin of Springfield was unable to begin school this fall because of illness. She contracted rheumatic fever last summer and is still bedfast. We are all hoping for a speedy recovery and an early return to school.

The new pledge class has already shown its athletic ability by defeating the Delta Gamma pledges in touch football, 14-7. This is the second consecutive year that the Theta pledges have triumphed over the Delta Gammas in this inter-sorority game.

Our chapter is also proud of its old members. Jean Weiss and Florence Krabbel are pledges to Shi-ai, the sophomore activity honorary. Marilyn North, our president, is one of the finalists in the Homecoming queen contest.

This year the Thetas, in conjunction with the Phi Gamma Deltas, have been selected to participate in the annual Homecoming stunt show. The title of our skit is "Santa Claus' Helpers."

October 28

BETH IVENS

Indiana

Our pledge class never ceases to amaze us with its vivacity and originality. For example, during fraternity one night, we learned that the pledges were waiting downstairs to give us a Halloween party. Hurriedly, we all dressed in costumes for the party. The height of the entertainment was the modeling and explaining of the costumes by their originators. After a skit, refreshments and songs, we were convinced of our pledges' resourcefulness.

It is traditional for the pledge class to present a class project to the house. This year, instead of a material gift, the girls decided to give something a bit out of the ordinary. They felt that the boys in Korea needed blood much more than we needed a present; therefore, as a pledge class, they voted to donate blood to the Red Cross. Their decision proved the stimulus for a large number of other fraternities and sororities also to pledge their support to this project.

October 21 was the date of the initiation of our 23 pledges, who are: Dorothy Walker, Dorothy Ayres, Patricia Ball, Beverly Bartlett, Gretchen Benzel, Barbara Blackburn, Nancy Blough, Mary Branson, Mary DeLaurier, L'Ann Dixon, Joan Edris, Shirley Ferguson, Diana Fisbeck, Barbara Fulford, JoAnn Hanna, Mary Kolb, Maryetta MacMurray, Mary Moodey, Sue Olson, Donna Shaw, Lois Walker, Judy Warner and Emily Weirich.

Each year at Indiana university there is a Fall Carnival. Working together with the Phi Delta Thetas, we constructed a 20 x 30 foot red-striped front, with the huge letters asking, "Have you seen the biggest?," towering high above the crowd. Presiding over the whole affair were the bulging eyes of Esqui, the Esquire man. For the second year straight, we won first place in the number of tickets sold.

Not only have we been socializing, but we have also been improving scholastically. Last year, we placed seventh in sororities on campus; we are now third. This improvement is the result of much hard work. With the scholarship cup once more in view, we hope to capture again this honor which we held for six consecutive semesters.

Beta Omicron welcomed 19 wonderful new pledges this fall. They are: LaDonna Ballard, Jerry Bender, Charlotte Boecker, Jo Clark, Sheryl Crawford, Theresa Finch, Sonya Goering, Mary Jean Holroyd, Loa Lunan, Barbara Meyers, Barbara Moore, Mary Mulhall, Sally Rehnberg, Ann Spinharny, Carol Sundean, Sue Sutherland, Jane Toohey, Donna Vicari and Jean Wood. Sally is the new Freshman "Y" president, which keeps the honor in our house for the second consecutive year.

Beta Omicron is very proud of our crowned beauties already this fall. Colleen Alexander received the honor of being the Quad Queen, the Quad being the largest men's dormitory on campus. Betty Lou Brunson was presented as Dolphin Queen Attendant at the Homecoming festivities.

Oct. 28 was a date long awaited by Dottie Lauer, Joanie Killinger, Barbara Flower, Donna Clymer, Barbara Weeks, Barbara Gaines and Marisol Mallo. Pledge pins were exchanged for Theta kites by these seven new Thetas.

The Thetas have been entertained on exchanges by several fraternities. Those included were Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Pi Kappa Alpha and Sigma Nu. We collaborated with the Alpha Tau Omegas on our Homecoming float this year.

Another highlight of this fall's activities was an alumnae scholarship meeting. At this dessert cozy the deserving girls received awards for their high scholar-

Eighteen wonderful pledges were the reward for the hectic rush week in September. The new pledges are: Zeta Baird, Des Moines; Mary Jo Beirbaum, Cherokee; Barbara Cox, Nyack, N.Y.; Julia Fargo, Omaha, Nebr., daughter of Janice LaBrie Fargo; Sue Grandson, Chicago; Marilyn Groomes, Menlo; Donna Iverson, Racine, Wis.; Janice Lampe, Dubuque, and Margaret Mattison, Winona, Minn.

Also, Mary Jo Nelson, Clinton; Ida Oderkirk, DeKalb, Ill.; Harriet Parsons, Redfield, S.D.; Nancy Parr, Waterloo; Ruth Rust, Davenport; Elizabeth Sheldon, Sioux City; Janet Wilke, Kirkwood, Mo., and Juliann Wilson, daughter of Neva Gales Wilson, and Louise Pierre, both of Ames.

Queen selections started early this year, with Bonnie Hoelfe and Barbara Nore finalists, respectively, for Harvest Ball queen and Honorary Cadet Colonel of Scabbard and Blade.

The new wing on our house, housing the kitchen, dining room and bedrooms, is slowly being finished. We hope to move in as a Christmas present to us all.

Gamma Iota started the fall with a new housemother, Mrs. Stanley Watson. Pam, as she is known to the girls, was housemother here in 1947-48. The next year she was a counselor at Marjorie Webster junior college and in 1949 went to Florida State college as housemother for Theta's Beta Nu chapter. Pam has been a great help in furthering the homelike atmosphere of the Theta house and making the fall social functions a success. Gamma Iota certainly is glad to have her back!

A successful rush season resulted in the pledging of the following girls: Bess Clements, Washington, D.C.; Betty Booth Coleman, Harrodsburg; Pat Darrah, Huntington, W.Va.; Marion Gregory, Mayfield; Nancy Harper, Dede Link and Jean Carroll Wathen, all of Lexington; Frieda Jones and Joyce Williams, both of Paducah; Lynn Marshall, Rockville, Ind.; Martha Powers, Carrollton; Joanne Reynolds, Greenville; Victoria Shaver, Joyce Miles, Joyce Speck, Pat Gill, Barbara Vance and Beverly Vance, all of Louisville, and Sue Wetherly, Frankfort.

An informal party was held in honor of the pledges and their dates on Oct. 27. The Halloween motif was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Everyone enjoyed listening to the Kentucky football game which was played in Florida that day.

Thetas are winning individual honors at U. K. this fall. Jane Bartlett won the first title of the year at the University when she was crowned Queen of Lances Carnival. All sororities and fraternities on campus participate in the carnival and each has its candidate for Queen. Jane was sponsor for Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Mary Jo Bishop, one of three Thetas tapped for Mortar Board last spring, has added another honor to her list of achievements. She is now a member of Phi Beta, speech, music and dance honorary.

Betty Booth Coleman, a member of this fall's pledge class, has been elected president of the freshman women's dormitory, Patterson Hall.

Cheerleaders for the U. K. Wildcats this year include two Thetas, Nancy Brown and Kay King.

Thanks to the help of the Gamma Iota Alumnae club and Mothers' club, the attic at the Theta house was remodeled during the summer. Consequently, five additional girls are living in the house this year. One outstanding donation which made this possible was the gift of a fire escape from Mr. and Mrs. Alex Parker, Zoe Parker's parents. Furthermore, the basement is now used as the chapter room. Gamma Iota appreciates the interest and donations of these alumnae and parents.

After a successful week of rushing, we welcomed 20 girls into our pledge class. They are: Patricia Abernathy, Fort Atkinson; Barbara Bruce and Rosemary Freeman, both of Green Bay; Sarah Lynn Dalton, Fish Creek; Kathleen Draper, Oshkosh; Jane Dropers, Betty Guerin and Ann Fetherston, all of Milwaukee; Jane Gerot, Minneapolis, Minn.; Jeanine Hallock, Appleton; Georgia Hester, Glenview, Ill.; Frances Hilborn, Chicago Heights, Ill.; Margaret Jamieson, Toledo, Ohio; Justine Johnson, Rockford, Ill.; Shirley Lewis, Madison; Ann Martin, Watseka, Ill.; Dorothy Rahr, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; Mary Schlei, Manitowoc; Mary Shaw, Wauwatosa, and Ann Wallner, Skokie, Ill. We introduced them at a formal at the new student union on Oct. 6.

Last spring Joan Arado and Jean Guion were tapped by Mortar Board. Joan was also honored by receiving the Spade as the most outstanding junior woman.

Three of the six beauty queens chosen last spring were Sue Goetz, Peggy Johnston and Jean Reynolds. Jean also was a member of the Homecoming court this fall.

We became proud parents last spring of a 12-year-old French girl when, through the Foster Parents' Plan, we adopted Leopoldine Rogiers.

Marty Benson is vice president of the student body government, and Jean Reynolds is co-social chairman of all college functions. Jean Guion is publicity chairman of the Women's Recreation association and is also a counselor at one of the women's dormitories, as are Estie Clingman and Joan Arado. Emmy Bunks and Barbara Brunswick are new members of Sunset, honorary dramatic society.

Our pledge class presented us with a prize-winning Homecoming float. A huge Viking ship brought us first place.

We were glad to welcome Janet McConachie as a new initiate on Oct. 30.

We have just finished a strenuous two weeks of rushing and are delighted to have pledged 17 new girls. They are: Harriet Abbott-Smith, Barbara Browne, Sis Bunting, Merran Evans, Mary Griffin, Mary Hurzburg, Joyce Iverson, Dorothy Jane, Judy Patton, Janet Preston, Gerda Thomas, Bibsy Townshend, Harriet Wickendon, Norma Wight, Bebe Wilson, Carol Voxburgh and Janice Young.

The other exciting news for us here in Montreal was the visit today of Their Royal Highnesses, Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh. The fraternity house is bedecked with flags in honor of the royal visit, and many of the Thetas had the honor of being present at a civic banquet given for the visitors.

The fraternities on the campus have been asked to contribute their efforts to the current blood donor campaign, and many of our number are putting long hours into the work. By next week we expect that every Theta who could will have given her blood.

The membership of Gamma Mu chapter is increasing rapidly. On Feb. 22, 18 girls received their pins. They were: Sue Gardner, Barbara Bumgarner, Betty Collier, Lois Crane, Carroll Crater, Muriel Crowson, Muriel Duey, Nancy Herring, Eleanor Hodgson, Ann Houghton, Lorraine Jorgensen, Kay Kerrick, Eleanor Lawrence, Nancy Layne, Lois McCabe, Claire Requard, Molly Turner and Barbara Bagby.

The biggest thrill of last school year came when we won the Interfraternity Sing on April 26. Dressed in gold satin dresses, long black gloves, and carrying black fans, we courageously went on the stage, sang our two songs and won! That night we were serenaded by the S.A.E.'s, who had won for the fraternities, and the following Monday we had a Victory Dinner.

On top of this honor, Amy Berger, was chosen "Miss Maryland," reigning over the Junior Prom. Many other girls in the chapter also won honors of which they can be proud. Sue Patton was chosen as one of the three outstanding sophomore girls; Roberta Bafford was organizations editor of the Terrapin; Mary Lakeman was associate editor of the Old Line; Carroll Crater was chosen as a sponsor for the A.R.O.T.C.; Eleanor Hodgson became a member of the varsity rifle team, and Laura Flippin was crowned the "Sweetheart of Sigma Pi" at the Orchid Ball.

One of the nicest Sundays that we spent was at a picnic with the Gamma Kappa chapter from G.W.U. in Rock Creek Park. We wore ourselves out playing baseball until we decided that we were not all girl athletes, and turned to eating and singing instead. Then only a thunderstorm drove us away, back to studies again.

Our Spring Formal was held in the Congressional Room of the Willard Hotel this year, after which we hurried to the house of Sue Gardner for breakfast. Climaxing a wonderful spring term was our banquet on May 28 in the Terrapin Room of The Maryland U. dining hall at which awards were given and nostalgic tears shed.

Now we are back at work again, this time with very hopeful prospects of a new house. We have painted the rooms with much care, gotten ourselves a new Bendix and lived through our first hour exams. Of course, the rushing season is over, and we now have a lucky number of new pledges—13. They are: Annabelle Fosdick, Millicent Benner, Lane Carl, Robyn Harvey, Elizabeth McDaniels, Mary Purcell, Nancy Randall, Elizabeth Skeats, Sally Lynde, Geraldine Cooke, Ruth Warren, Jane Rosenberger and Cynthia Brown.

We also have four new initiates: Judy Atkinson, Ann Hovgard, Kathy Reno and Helen Toner. We are happy, too, to welcome two new transfers: Dolly Medlock, from San Diego State, and Jane Wray, from Vermont.

Here at Gamma Eta, fall semester opened with the bang, bang of carpenters putting the finishing touches on our new dining room. In addition to this room, we have an enlarged kitchen, a new apartment for our housemother and a sun deck. A group of energetic girls came back early to the house and put in long hours painting, scrubbing, and polishing. But everyone agreed that the hard work was worthwhile, for when the semester officially opened, we had one of the shiniest and most attractive houses on campus.

Homecoming weekend found the Thetas busily building a float to compete in the annual Float Rally. Our float, "Roast the Rams," featured a group of Indians feasting around a beautiful Indian princess.

We held an openhouse after the football game that same weekend and were happy to see the many alumnae who came back. They were all enthusiastic about our house's "new look."

The annual Round Robin Tea for freshmen was held on Oct. 27 and 28. We entertained more than 300 freshmen in this first party of the rushing schedule.

Gamma Eta is proud of Eunice Diamond, Cecilia Machaiek and Jean Sanborn who were recently elected to Phi Kappa Phi. Eunice was also made managing editor of the Collegian, the campus newspaper. Three Thetas, Eunice Diamond, Hope Hartigan and Betty Lou Johnson, are candidates for Military Ball Queen.

We were happy to pledge Ann Hood and Joan Arthur this fall. Our new initiates are Margo Bushey, Gale Ferry, Nancy Pond, Dorothy Skilling and Jean Tonks.

Gamma Upsilon has just finished a happy and profitable month. On Oct. 7 we initiated eight girls: Allegra Ainsley, Joanne Bowling, Katherine Gels, Joanne Gray, Jane Hetzler, Marilyn Kyle, Dorothy Oldt and Janet Whitaker. Our new president of District IX, Mrs. Loveless, attended the ceremonies and addressed the group at a reception held at the Phi Delta Theta national headquarters.

Four days later we received our new pledge class: Carol Baker, Barbara Caldwell, Carol Gibbons, Jean Henderson, Andrea Leader, Nanci Leader, Marcia McCuaig, Kathy Palmer, Mary Sutherlin, Mary Lou Sweeney, Sally Ann Thoms, Mary Welsh and Karol Yale.

In addition our chapter is richer by a transfer from Mu chapter, Joanne Worshner.

In activities the Thetas are shining on Miami's campus. Allegra Ainsley, Jane Hanson, Carol Gibbons, Liz Randolph, Marilyn Kyle, Pat Bell, Corliss Rike and Lucelle Wolf are serving on the house councils of Women's League in their dormitories. In radio, Jane Hanson and Lou John are co-mistresses of ceremonies on a program called "Co-ed Quiz Time." Lu Wolf was a member of the Homecoming court, and we were proud that weekend both of her and of our float which was a huge mix-master with moving beaters.

We are proud, too, of the honoraries which Thetas have made this year. Corliss Rike is a member of Sigma Delta Phi; Virginia Oxley has been named to Alpha Kappa Delta, and Doris Kaiser was team captain of the Miami Chest Drive. Also, Kathy Palmer is a counselor at Swing Hall, a high honor for a freshman.

We are holding breakfast in our suite on Saturday mornings in order to make an opportunity for pledges and members to get better acquainted.

Eta Thetas came back to Ann Arbor to find the house still full of memories of the wonderful friends we met here at the District Convention last spring. We enjoyed having the rest of the Thetas of our District as guests and only hope that they liked us as much as we did them.

This has been a busy fall semester for us so far, brim full of fun and work. Our Dads came to visit on Oct. 13 for the annual Fathers' Weekend. After going to the game with them and having dinner and entertainment afterward, we Thetas decided that the Dads were the best dates we have ever had.

Oct. 27 was the Homecoming game and Eta won one of the prizes in the Homecoming display contest. We used the theme of "Argyle Sock 'Em," and had in the front yard a huge maize and blue argyle sock, with knitting instructions on how to beat Minnesota. Nancy Barlow was chairman of the project.

On Homecoming morning we had our annual Mud-bowl game, where we played the Collegiate Sorosis during the half time of the Phi Delta-SAE game. We usually play the Sorosae in a rough game of football, but this year it had to be soccer because of the new no-women's-football rule. Soccer proved to be a lucky game for us as we won and there were no bones broken!

Many of our girls are taking time out for their favorite activities. Betty Bridges is on the Women's Judiciary committee; Sue Craig on the J-Hop committee; Aleen Alsop and Sue Shafter are on Soph. Cab.; Phebe McLean and Jean Barnby were in the show, "Soph Satire;" Paula Bargman is running for Student Legislature, and Dibby Ewing is on the Panhellenic Ball committee.

We plan to make the Panhellenic Ball a gala affair by having a dinner beforehand for all the Thetas and their dates. Other future social plans include an exchange dessert with the Delts and a faculty dinner, with the guest of honor being the new Dean of Women, Miss Deborah Bacon. We also have started a new policy of rolling back the carpets in the dining room every Friday night in order to bring our dates in for dancing and record parties.

Michigan State

Football season aroma filtered through Beta Pi chapter house and started the year off with lots of activity. Several Beta Pis visited Eta chapter for the Michigan-Michigan State game Sept. 27, and on Oct. 6 some of us went to Alpha Gamma chapter for the Ohio State-Michigan State game. On both occasions we were delighted with the hospitality accorded us.

Fathers' Day probably brings more booming voices into our chapter than any other occasion. This year the big day was Oct. 13. In the afternoon Thetas and their dads attended the Marquette-Michigan State game. After the game there was a program led by Sue Shenefield and Joan Smith, followed by a dinner.

Homecoming game was Oct. 27. Theta alumnae were invited to come to the house after the game. They were received with open arms and served cider and doughnuts.

October 20 was a big day, especially for Jaleen Rogers who was initiated then. On the same day our new housemother, Mrs. Russell H. McCabe, was honored at our annual faculty tea. Mrs. Mac, as we have nicknamed her, is from Owasso.

Sally Sommers and Marilyn Ringler were on the Panhellenic committee which, along with I.F.C., planned the Greek formal held Nov. 9.

New officers this term are: vice president, Mona Lou Hoedl; corresponding secretary, Marilyn Howes; chaplain, Nancy Parrott; song leader, Martha Morgan, and editor, Suzanne Waldo. Our new alumnae advisors include Nanette Vandervoort Martin, Frances Lostutter Overholt and Joan Callard.

Last spring Sally Hameline was tapped for Mortar Board. This fall Judy Straight joined Delta Psi Kappa, physical education honorary, and Marilyn Ringler pledged Orchesis, dance group, and Theta Alpha Phi, dramatics honorary. Virginia O'Brien is chairman of the Senior of the Week committee, and Mona Lou Hoedl is on the journalism council. Thetas participating on Union Board this fall are Mary Gass, Joan Harris, Mary Park and Sally Sommers.

So far we have had one queen this year: Queen of the Harvest Ball, Jean Cotter. Honored on courts were Joan Swanton, member of the Homecoming queen's court, and Sally Gibson, member of porpoise court.

Spring quarter found the Thetas continuing in their whirl of activities. We were honored to have Mrs. French, Grand President, with us for our Founders' Day celebration April 4.

At the Psi Upsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon open houses for all sororities, we walked away with 2nd and 1st places, respectively, in their costume and talent contests. In the Greek Week Sing contest, we were one of five sorority finalists out of the 20 sororities here on campus.

Individual girls brought laurels to our house also. Jane Brockway became Panhellenic Human Relations chairman; Marcia Roos was elected to Theta Sigma Phi, and was also among the 150 students recognized for their contributions in campus activities; Kaki Peterson was chosen chairman of Women's Opportunity Week, sponsored each year by AWS; Joan Chapman was elected to Lambda Alpha Phi; Joanne Olsen graduated cum laude in three years, and Patty Nelson was elected assistant treasurer of AWS, as well as being one of 50 students recognized for participation in Union planning committees.

Jean Olson Brooks was elected to Pi Lambda Theta; Mary Jeanne Flummerfelt received the Pi Alpha Theta award; Cynthia Gray reigned as R.O.T.C. queen at their spring dance, and Audrey Van Deren was chosen to be a Minnesota cheerleader.

During informal rushing spring quarter we pledged Marcia Fayfield, Excelsior.

Fall quarter started off with a bang with our moving into our beautiful new house and pledging 13 girls. They are: Ruth Fjellman, Sue Fuller, Joanne Johnson and Olivia Crawford, all of Minneapolis; Judy Daggett and Susan Snipes, St. Paul; Patty Courtney, White Bear; Pat Erickson, Owatonna; Shiela Smith, Excelsior; Judy Strand, Hibbing, daughter of Rebecca Bailey Strand; Ann Lehmickie, Stillwater; Virginia Bootz, Des Moines, Iowa, and Bubby Wright, Williston, N.D., sister of Jean Wright Snyder.

We are taking every opportunity to show off our new house. We have a coffee hour after each home football game for all Theta alumnae and friends. October 15 was the annual sorority openhouse when all fraternities are invited over to meet the new pledges. October 25 was family night for the Thetas, sponsored by the Mothers' club. We had a delicious dinner, followed by entertainment by the chapter.

Scholarship dinner was held Oct. 29. Awards were presented to Patty McConville, Ann Nelson, and Carolyn Thomas by the Mothers' club for most improvement in scholarship. The jeweled pin for highest chapter scholarship will be worn by Joan Chapman this quarter.

We are especially proud of Nancy Fawcett who has just been named Panhellenic assistant rushing chairman.

The chapter and Pat Kilpatrick, rush chairman, worked all through rush week with our wonderfully cooperative district president, Avis Green Tucker, and rush advisor, Hazel Clay Thoelke, to land an outstanding pledge class.

Upperclassmen pledged were: Carol Crowe, Poplar Bluff; Janet Dancy and Nancy Peet, both of Kansas City; Rose Mary Diekroeger, Wentzville; Esther English, Columbia; Marilyn Janzen, Mobile, Ala.; Jo Anne Jones, Neosha; Marjorie Meredith, Jefferson City; Katherine Ryan, St. Joseph, and Charlotte Shields, Kennett.

Freshman pledges are: Janet Arnold and Myrna Fisher, both of Kansas City; Marie Chism, Oak Park, Ill.; Deon Lawrence, Lake Ottawana; Pat Loutch, St. Joseph; Phyllis McDandel and Janice Nickerson, both of Independence; Polly Meads, Dorothy Patterson and Carol Sutton, all of St. Louis; Claire Reuther, Columbia, and Janet Wilson, Hickman Mills.

Congratulations to Mary Ann Cherry, Joyce Cummings, Charlotte Campbell, Mary Ewin, Marilyn Miller and Judy Rose who were initiated Sept. 23.

We welcomed seven new transfers this year. They are: Ginny Noth, Syracuse; Marge Gall, Beloit; Scottie Hickok, DePauw; Pat Dorschland, Iowa State; Marty McGowan, Colorado; Helen Hogueland, DePauw, and Natalie Cobaugh, Colorado. Two girls recently affiliated are Janet Bevan, S. M. U., and Gail Williams, Colorado.

Activity-minded Beverly Hogue landed a job with the cheerleading squad for the second year.

When the Aggies kicked up hay and toted jugs of cider at their annual dance, Barnwarmin', Barbara Schmidt was chosen one of the five finalists.

When Halloween rolled around Billy Bartelsmeyer was chosen one of the five candidates for Kappa Sigma Witch Queen.

Fans lined the sidelines to cheer when four Thetas won first and second place in the intramural tennis tournament. Ginger Bunker, Natalie Cobaugh, Carol Crowe and Jean Ann Harrison were the players.

Mary Anna Freiamanis from Latvia ate with us during two weeks in October. She is a D.P. student and this is a Panhellenic project.

The chapter entertained Columbia alumnae at an informal dinner, Oct. 31. After dinner pledges were given five minutes to prepare a skit. They were rewarded for the performance by a surprise date with the current beau.

The big news this fall is our pledge class. Nancy Calvert, as rush chairman guided Alpha Nu to a wonderful group of 23 girls: Joan Stokan, Anaconda; Arlene Hoiland, Big Timber; Cherie Brodsack, Gayle Gibbons, Virginia Hays, Dona Woodard, Ruth Rawlings (sister of Ann) and Pat Moore, all of Billings; Marjorie Rutherford, Donna Mulligan (sister of Bess), Butte; Janet Harper, Paula Dybdal and Janet Olson, all of Great Falls; Nan Barney and Elizabeth Raftery, Helena; Betty Lee Means, Livingston; Lynn Jelinek, Miles City; Billie Ann McFarland (sister of Estelle), Missoula; Georgiana Coppedge, Polson, Janet Bailey, Red Lodge; Doris Sandsmark, Ronan; Dorcass Snyder, Chewelah, Wash., and Lou Marylin Vierhus, Tokyo, Japan.

Pledge officers for the group are: Ruth Rawlings, president; Lynn Jelinek, secretary; Nan Barney, treasurer; Janet Bailey, activities chairman; Janet Olson, song leader, and Virginia Hays, scholarship.

October 17 was an important date for the three girls whom we initiated. They were Virginia Cowling, Marlene Cresien and Janet Hawkins.

After settling down from the rush season, we installed seven new officers. They are: Joyce Frigaard, social chairman; Bette Rae Wolfe, head marshal with Dale Barde and Barbara Jenkins as assistants; Beverly Talbott, co-archivist; Sue Travis, assistant publicity, and Shirley Stanaway, assistant rush.

Fraternities began their social life this fall with "Queen" elections and our candidates are Pat Schwarz, who is a candidate for Sigma Phi Epsilon Queen of Hearts, and Donna Skor and Barbara Jenkins who were nominated for Phi Sigma Kappa Moonlight Girl. Marjorie Rutherford, a pledge, was one of the candidates nominated by the freshmen for Phi Sig Moonlight girl.

Chapter members entertained alumnae and guests during Homecoming at an informal reception. For our float in the parade, we Thetas made the biggest "Little Brown Stein" in history, with Mary Louise "Pinky" McCallie, our queen candidate sitting atop the foam.

Pulling down campus honors last spring were three of our girls who were tapped for Spur, sophomore service honorary: Marily Foster, president; Pat Schwarz, editor, and Vivian Sletten. Two of our sophomores were also tapped for Alpha Lambda Delta with Vivian Sletten being president and Donna Skor historian. Moving to our juniors of last year we find that Anne Beatty, our house president, was chosen as the "Outstanding Junior Girl" at Matrix Table. Three Thetas were initiated into Mortar Board: Irene Stritch, Anne Beatty and Jackie Perry, who is vice president of the group. Jackie was also chosen as a member of Kappa Tau. Also last spring, Ginger Cowling competed as a finalist for the title of Rodeo Queen.

Activity girl Eileen Polk was rated this summer in twirling, as first in national competition. She is now chairman of the Miss Montana committee and is president of Aquamaids, swimming honorary of which Katherine Hetler is secretary. Aquamaids also chose two of our pledges, Liz Raftery and Georgia Copledge, as new members. Mary Lee Powell is a new member of "M" club, girls athletic organization, and Irene Stritch received her "M" club pin.

In the elections held last week, Donna Persons was chosen as secretary of Associated Students, one of the top honors a girl can receive at Montana State university.

Rho was very proud to pledge 24 girls on Oct. 18. They are: Charlene Campbell, Mary Claire Flynn, Barbara Lucas, Shirley Moore, Patricia Savage, Marilyn Stanley and Susan Stoehr, all of Omaha; Charlotte Hervert, Judy Flansburg and Phyllis Colbert, all of Lincoln; Eileen Gorman and Hope Miner, Grand Island; Penelope Sloan, Clarks; Lee Ellen Creasman, McCook; Carroll Swift, Thedford; Mary Ann Worral, Wahoo; Jewel Claussen, Holdredge; Joan Roe, Bennington; Jane Haylett, Scottsbluff; Donna Elliott, Mitchell; Kay Kinsey, Falls City; Ann Skold, Kearney; Lois Gearhart, Malvern, Iowa, and Matylda Davenport, Aurora, Ill.

On Oct. 15, Rho welcomed two initiates into the chapter. They were Kathryn Haskell and Rosanne McLaughlin. Another welcome addition to our chapter is Helene Greene, a transfer from Beta Omega.

Last spring's Ivy Day, May 5, was a very exciting occasion for Nebraska Thetas. Virginia Koch was revealed as Ivy Day queen. Special guest of honor was another Theta, the first Ivy Day queen, Mrs. Lewis Anderson. Leading the Ivy chain was Phyllis Haley, who achieved this honor by being an outstanding leader of her senior class. Harriett Wenke and Mary Jean Neely were chosen to participate in the Daisy Chain because of their high scholarship and their many activities. It was also announced that Ann Mockett had been elected to Theta Sigma Phi, national professional journalism honorary. As a climax, our president, Jackie Hoss, was marked as a new Mortar Board and chosen secretary of that organization.

The busy fall season is in full swing now with hour dances and openhouses. A tea was given Oct. 14 in honor of our new housemother, Mrs. Agnes Gaddis. The preceding day, Oct. 13, Rho was invited to the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house for a brunch. At the present time there is much activity around the house due to preparations for Homecoming which will be on Nov. 3.

October 30

MARY ELLEN MARTISON

Nevada

For the second time in three years a Beta Mu Theta has been chosen Miss Nevada. Donna Sollars, first chosen Miss Reno in a preliminary contest, was named Miss Nevada when she vied for the title with seven other candidates.

Back at school this fall, we found our chapter much smaller. Our spring graduates were Mary Mitcheo, Gloria Eddy, Jeanne and Eleanor Fulstone, Donna Sollars, Mary Lou Kent, Terry Alauzet, Anna Picchi, Barbara Weber Walker and Ramona Walker. We also miss Joan McEachern, Nancy Rolph, Patricia Annand Bastian, Sharon McPartland Etchegoyhen, Marla Mason, Joan Melner, Joan Hanifan and Marian Cordes.

The end of rushing season found us with 15 new pledges. They are: Joan Williams, Sparks; Harriett Anderson, Burlingame; Carol Varney, Willows; Myldred Cordes, Evelyn Nelson and Adamae Gray, all of Gardnerville; Pat Harker, Oakland, and Ilene Boffinger, Charlyne Olsen, Dana Orth, Lynn Scott, Sharin Thompson, Joan Trigerro, Vicky Vickrey and Marilyn Wittwer, all of Reno. A swimming party and a slumber party at the house followed pledging.

Newly initiated members are Elise Valentine, Mary Jane Zunino, Barbara Rolphing and Jerry Seaberry.

Homecoming followed immediately after rushing. Vicky Vickrey was our candidate for queen, and we introduced her to the campus at an openhouse. "Home is where the heart is" was the theme of our Homecoming float, a large red heart, nine feet by seven, resting on a bed of white.

Our third venture at Homecoming was a skit presented at the "Wolves Frolic," a program of skits by all school organizations. Ours was a Calypso number done in fluorescent dresses and black lights. For our victory in a ticket sales competition we won an award of 25 dollars.

Following the Homecoming parade and before the football game, a luncheon was served to alumnæ at the chapter house.

For the second time in a row, Beta Mu has been awarded the scholarship plaque given by the Associated Women Students to the sorority showing the greatest improvement in grade points over the previous semester. The plaque was presented to us by the dean at a "bean feed" held on campus.

No letter received.

New Mexico

Here at Gamma Omicron we have completed our new house and have 24 girls living in it this year. Our new housemother is Mrs. Melvin Bradner from Montana.

This fall we pledged 10 girls: Barbara Brophy, Mary Elizabeth Bennett, Martha Bown, Barbara Brown, Barbara DuBois, Jacqueline Eisele, Gayle Hopkins, Patricia Kleinhein, Colleen Messick and June Northrop.

October 14 was the initiation date for three of our second semester pledges: Lois McCleskey, Judi Thompson and Suzanne Murray. Affiliated by the chapter on that day was Julia Janet Pollock. Living in the house this year, too, is a transfer from Michigan, Joan McCoy.

On that same busy Oct. 14 we held an openhouse to show our new house and to introduce Mrs. Bradner. All members of the faculty, social organizations and board of regents were invited.

Ilse Gay and Nancy Rhodes were on the radio Oct. 18 with a short history of Kappa Alpha Theta, coupled with a program of records.

Last April we gave a repeat stunt-night performance at the Veterans' hospital, assisted by the Phi Delta Thetas. Other spring activities included a barbecue held up in the mountains and our third annual Triad with the Pi Beta Phis and Kappa Kappa Gammas. Our candidate for Fiesta queen, Allyn Davis, was judged first attendant.

Attending district convention last June were Gypsy Jo Bennett and Jay Pettit.

October 29

*North Dakota

Under the capable hand of Gerry Brightbill, rush chairman, Alpha Pi got its quota of 12 pledges who are: Peggy Arnold, Susan Page, Joanne Thompson, Virginia Brett, Yvonne Plummer and Loanne Burman, all of Grand Forks; Rae Stockman, Williston; Verlys Belby, Oakes; Luanne Arnold (daughter of Lillian Christianson Arnold), Langdon; Marilyn Meyers, Larimore; Jacie Swanson, Hettinger, and Sherry Schjeldahl, Haynes.

We are also happy to announce the initiation of Kathryn Waters on Nov. 4.

We are proud of four girls who brought the chapter honors last spring: Kathy Waters became president of Phi Chi Theta, honorary fraternity for women in commerce, and Carol Applequist was elected president of Delta Psi Kappa, honorary fraternity for women in physical education. Also, Ruth Nelson and Dorothy Jarmen were elected secretary and historian, respectively.

This week marks the pledging of Connie Atwood and Adele Stewart into Sigma Alpha Iota, music fraternity, and the initiation of Joanne Frostad into senior orchesis.

Past social events for this year have been the pledge party, at which our pledges were hostesses to representatives from all other pledge classes on campus, and the exchange dinners and dances which have been held with the Sigma Nus and Sigma Chis.

With Dad's Day coming this weekend, we have turned into carpenters to build house decorations made in the form of a large top which we optimistically hope will win honors.

We are also looking forward to the annual Sock Party scheduled to take place Nov. 9. Hence Thetas can be found in most every chair knitting argyles for themselves and their dates.

October 29

JOANNE FROSTAD

North Dakota State

With many thanks to our rush chairman, Janet Wolbert, Gamma Nu pledged eight girls: Marilyn Ball, Barbara Bitters, Sally Lohman, Beverly Stegge, Irene Crosby, Ann Marie Ensrud, Beverly Ewald and Avis Hoeft.

On Oct. 3, Barbara MacMurry and Elaine Forbes were initiated.

Last spring Theta seniors, Rosemarie Lohse and Ann Whitman Cronk, were honored at Senior Breakfast. Junette Hill Keating and Betty Gordhamer were elected to Senior Staff. The scholarship pledge bracelet was awarded to Edith Hawkins.

For three years in succession, a Theta has been chosen Barn Dance queen. Barbara Martin was chosen for the honor this year.

This fall Janet Wolbert and Alyce Mitchell were initiated into Guidon. Air Debs, a new honor organization on our campus, claimed Barbara Snyder and Marian Paris.

Our new housemother, Mrs. J. A. Cull, is looking forward to a fine year with us, as we are with her.

Our social season is filled with coffee hours, teas and fraternity entertainments. We are all looking forward to the gala Spinsters Skip and the formal Military Ball that will be held this term.

November 1

GAIL LOHSE

Northwestern

Victorious again, Tau filled its quota of 30 girls during formal rush week this fall. Members of our pledge class are: Luan Ayars, Detroit; June Camp-hausen and Betty McCabe, both of Wilmette; Mary Clingman, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Celia Cole, West Newton, Mass.; Ann Billington, Phyllis Johnson, Stevie Keim and Barbara and Beverly Dahm, all of Evanston; Elsie Deister and Sharon Pavey, both of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Carroll Driftmeyer and Patsy Smith, both of Indianapolis, Ind.; Isabelle Dryden, Geneva; Barbara Grimm, Joy Pavlik and Joan Pennington, all of Kenilworth; Ellen Kaupke, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Jane Kuhlman, Grosse Pointe, Mich.; Susan Lindberg and Nancy Feldon, both of Winnetka; Catherine McGill, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Elizabeth McGinness and Nancy Hogue, both of Akron, Ohio; Shelia Murphy, Marshfield, Wis.; Cynthia Peirce, Holland, Mich.; Jean Selby, Chicago; Diane Staples, Des Moines, Ia., and Jeanne Weir, Atlanta, Ga.

Heading the activities for last spring was the formal dance on April 20 at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club. Other events on the social calendar include the Theta-Kappa Kappa Gamma picnic, one with the Kappa Sigs, and our own chapter picnic at the home of Betty Tanner in Milwaukee, Wis.

We are proud to announce that Jane Collins starred in a solo number in the Waa-Mu Show, our all school musical. Barbara Melin, Peggy Ayars, and Kay Longenecker danced and sang in the chorus.

Theta Mothers stayed at the house for their special weekend on April 28. That Saturday evening we had dinner and entertainment for them.

For the second consecutive year Theta won the women's division of the May Sing. Chosen to usher were Kay Longenecker and Pat Yates, our two outstanding freshmen. Betty Eimers and Joanne Sidener were the two outstanding juniors elected to walk in the May Day parade. Claire Sorrells took honors in scholarship last spring by achieving a straight A average.

Delegates to the district convention held this summer were Joan Leichtfuss and Betty Eimers. They returned with many helpful ideas for the chapter.

A wonderful surprise from Tau Association awaited us this fall. The front hall of the house had been completely redecorated.

The first major event after pledging was Father's Weekend, Oct. 19. Friday night we took the Dads out for dinner and then provided entertainment at the house. Oct. 27 was the fortieth anniversary of Northwestern's Homecoming celebrations. In honor of Northwestern's Centennial Year celebrations, several open houses have been planned by Tau. On Nov. 9, at the Columbia Yacht Club, the actives will fête the pledges and their dates with the annual party given in their honor.

BONNIE ROTH

*Ohio State

Our fall season has been highlighted with the addition of 31 wonderful pledges. The two weekends of rushing ended with our theme party, The Wizard of Oz, Saturday night and our preferential banquets on Sunday, climaxed with pledging on the following Wednesday.

Our new pledges are: Doris Bergen, Patricia Charman, Barbara Farrell, Laurie Fischman, Mary Lois Ginther, Ortha Ann Grubb, Marilyn Head, Helen Johnson, Bonnie MacKay, Catherine Mortar, Nancy Nern, Martha Patmore, Mary Jean Perrill, Jenelle Rochelle, Carol Rodman, Patricia Rudd, Jean Ann Scatterday, Patricia Schultz, Frances Todd, Nancy Watt, Toccoa Wise, Lois Bond, Sallie Davies, Irene Hughes, Joan Mumm, Jerrie Murphy, Shirley Smith, Nancy Thrall, Karen Titsch, Mary Weaver, and Sylvia Westerman.

We were most pleased and inspired by the visit of Mrs. Helen French, Grand President, who came to Columbus to speak at the annual Scholarship Tea. Marjorie Pfeiffer won the scholarship bracelet for the pledges for having the highest point hour, a 3.93. Honorably mentioned for point hours over a 3.5 were Rachel Buchanan, Nancy Craver and Joann Dawson. The active chapter for the year placed twelfth out of 22 sororities with a 2.71, and the pledge chapter was fourth with a 2.51.

Mrs. French was honored at a tea to which Thetas of all ages from far and near came. Throughout her stay, Mrs. French was a continual source of inspiration to us, and we wish only that she could be with us more often.

We were also very happy to have with us Marjorie Montrose, our national press relations chairman.

With fall come the traditions of Dad's Day and Homecoming. Our fathers will be entertained at a banquet on Nov. 3 followed by a skit from rushing, "Thetas Through the Ages." At Homecoming-time our house will have huge outside decorations, under the capable direction of Margie Bateman and her crew. We have two lovelies, Jan Fasnaugh and Marilyn Davies, up for Homecoming Queen.

To be initiated on Nov. 10 are Margaret Allen, Penny Clemens, Maxine Scarf, Carol Stevens, Carol Dunkel, Patricia LeVeque, Alethe McDonough, Joan Donley and Marilyn Van Voorhis.

The "Emerald City" of last semester's rush party was more of a reality than a figment of imagination when Gamma Deuterons returned to school this fall. The walls of the house had received a coat of light green paint over the summer as part of a redecoration campaign which added a powder room and provided our housemother, Mrs. Allen Long, with a kitchen of her own. The envy of the campus, the little white house now boasts an interior excelled by none.

Pepped by the new decorations, Wesleyan Thetas began the year with a wiener roast in the backyard at which each class presented impromptu skits.

Faculty members were honored at an openhouse tea in October. Intellectuals met with the would-be intellectuals on an informal basis over the tea cups.

Along Fraternity Row, Theta's relations with the campus were on top. The Phi Delt and Gamma Deuts met after an October chapter meeting to give a "belling" to married June graduate, Helen Jo Lerch Rouhier. Combining talents with the Delta Tau Deltas in November, Theta presented "Dangerous Dan McGrew" as a skit for the Greek variety show. Sophomore Ann Grinton performed as "Lou" while our other talented queens formed a singing chorus line.

Homecoming found Thetas ready to welcome back familiar faces. Joan Flucke, senior from Detroit, reigned on the Homecoming court, while the chapter constructed a float with the Chi Omegas and Alpha Chi Omegas. The float, which was entered in the parade, depicted the snaring of the opposing team in a silver web. Following the game, the house was open to alumnae and visiting members of the Denison Theta chapter.

Inside the chapter circle, Peg Porter was presented the model pledge ring, and the highest chapter scholarship award went to "A" student, Pat Hopkins. Three former freshmen were initiated into Phi Society, the sophomore scholastic honorary. These were Ann Saville, Anita Cavagnaro and Pat Hopkins. Arline Davis and Rose Mary Stockwell were named senior advisors to the freshman dormitory. New campus honors were added to the chapter when Nancy Champion, sophomore, was named co-editor of the Wesleyan Sulphur Spray magazine and Sally Carren received an assistant chairmanship on the Campus Chest committee.

The month of October was not entirely devoted to social affairs, however, since two transfer students received black and gold pledge pins: Sally Kimmel of Cleveland and Nancy Cox of Middletown.

Last spring, 24 links were added to the Gamma Deuteron chain when the chapter initiated the following members: Marilyn Bachelder, Virginia Boyer, Anita Cavagnaro, Nancy Champion, Sally Carren, Cheryl Clark, Barbara Crosset, Louise Darkey, Carol Goldsword, Ann Grinton, Bea Hester, Patricia Hopkins, Carol Inman, Gretchen Loehr, Alice Lilley, Billy Moody, Margaret Porter, Nancy Rice, Joyce Sandbo, Ann Saville, Caroline Saunders, Sally Seiple, Nancy Walter and Nina Weigel.

Oklahoma

Alpha Omicron began the year with the initiation of eight girls. They are Marilyn Huntress, Camilla Lytle, Pat Davis, Ann Tankersley, Barbara McGrew, Mary K. Graham, Mary Meazel and Jean Walsh.

Then came rush and the pledging of 33 girls. We felt it was really worth those sleepless nights when we greeted: Deane Harrington, Martha McCabe, LaVona Price, Ronnie Claire Edwards, Louise McCall and Ann Cox, all of Oklahoma City; Dorothy Cline, Nancy Key, Laura Clarke and Ann Lackey, all of Tulsa; Mary Lynde, Jean Siebold, Kathryn Moore, Lucinda Finkle, and Barbara Haines, all of Muskogee; Pat Treadwell, Holdenville; Betty Lou Wagoner, Miami; Jane Whitbeck, Seminole; Nannette De Vinna, Okmulgee; Suzanne Wilson, Cleveland; Sally Evans, Enid; Barbara Ferguson, Lawton; Elaine Stigler, Stigler; Phyllis Williams, Chickasha; Mary Blanton, Pershing; Mollie O. Patrick, Shawnee; Barbara Entriiken, Ardmore; Sue Sexton, Ponca City; Martha Spillman, Dallas; Jamie Edwards, Washington, D.C.; Mary Dean Sudderth, Monahans, Tex.; Carolyn Jones, Houston, and Jacki Grubbs, Cincinnati.

Shortly after school began, the Mortar Board walk-out was held, and Mary Ellen Casey was announced as the outstanding freshman girl in the university of last year. She had a straight A average and was a member of nearly every activity on campus. At the same time, winners of the scholarship cup were announced. Theta won second with a 2.95 on the 4.0 system, .03 of a point behind the winners and 6% above the all women's average.

We have had many candidates for queens on the campus. Judy Regan was nominated for White Rose Queen of Lambda Chi Alpha, and LaVona Price was up for Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha. Celia Stanfield, Jo Ann Denman, Joan Wetzel and Mary K. Graham are our candidates for yearbook beauty queen. Jane Wilkinson ran for Ruf Nek (men's pep club) Queen.

October 20 was Dad's Day and everyone had a marvelous time. After lunch, dads and daughters went to the football game against Kansas. Then we came back to the house after the game for coffee, doughnuts and chatter. At half time it was announced that Theta had a larger percentage of fathers registered than any other sorority.

The theme of Homecoming this year was book titles. We chose Gulliver's Travels on which to base our decorations, and we worked hard on our giant, who was 22 feet high and 40 feet long. Stretched out on our lawn, he practically hid the whole front of the house.

For both the Colorado and Kansas games, many Thetas from those chapters were our guests. We thoroughly enjoyed having them and welcomed the opportunity to make new Theta friends.

In December we plan to have our fall serenade. Judy Regan, song leader, is drilling us on "All the Things You Are" and "Theta Lips." Also in December we will have our annual Theta Snowball formal when only Thetas may wear white.

ANN RICHARDS

Oklahoma State

When the reports of last spring's achievements started coming in this fall, members of Beta Zeta felt that this year would really be "ours" on the A & M campus.

We are very proud to have been named first in scholarship in the annual inter-sorority competition, having an over-all grade average of 3.0. In two years, Beta Zeta has boosted its scholarship from seventh to first place, and we truly feel that that is quite an accomplishment.

One of our girls, Jacque McKinney, walked off with top honors in the Physical Education department, being named by the Women's Athletic association as the outstanding freshman physical education major.

All during the month of October, one could see tired girls trudging in for dinner each evening. The reason? Why, football practice, of course! For two years the Pi Beta Phi and Kappa Alpha Thetas have staged an annual "Cold Cream Bowl Classic," which has drawn college and community interest as well. This year, as in the past two years of competition, the Theta "Kats" won a rousing victory over the Pi Phi "Pirates," terminating the three game series.

October 26 found the Thetas entertaining their dates with a "sock-hop." Each couple tried to outdo the other in a vivid display of brilliantly colored or uniquely patterned socks. Such fun! And what a scramble for shoes after the big party!

One of Kappa Alpha Theta's newest chapters, Gamma Tau at Tulsa, journeyed to Stillwater on Oct. 9 to hold joint initiation services with Beta Zeta chapter. Suzanne Barr and Martha Madden were the Beta Zeta initiates.

Of course, rush is still fresh in each Beta Zeta's mind, and we are all agreed that despite all the worry and energy expended during the week of Sept. 6, the grand Beta Zeta pledge class was well worth all efforts. They are: Marjorie Adams, Gerry Adamson, Winifred Bean, Sally Bevins, Sue Bradbury, Pat Brown, Barbara Dolezal, Pat Dryden, Sue Derhammer, Mary Emery, Lou Ann Fisher, Joanne Goff, Francel Grubb, Pat Horton, Jeanette Joullian, Patty Kalow, Carol Ketcham, Carolyn Labadie, Ruth Ann McCuiston, Helen Madomba, Lavina Monger, Nancy Pitts, Tommye Lynn Powers, Dixie Lee Price, Shirlee Stoll, Stephanie Thompson, Rosalee Walton, Carol York and Mary Ann Zaloudek.

October 27

PATTY FISHER

Oregon

One can easily recognize an Oregon Theta by her happy smile these days. Why? We just pledged 15 wonderful girls. They are: Ann Bankhead from Santa Rosa, Calif.; Ann Blackwell and Dorothy Kopp from Eugene; Josie Boylen, Ann Gerlinger, Joan Honeywell, Ann Hopkins (daughter of Margherita Hay Hopkins, Alpha Xi), Ann Johnston, Dolores Pasley, Marcia Tamiesie and Florence Wright, all from Portland; Betty Gillmore (sister of Frances and daughter of Marion Hill Gillmore, Alpha Xi); Ione Scott, Hood River; Norma Heyser (sister of Melba), Oswego, and Tricia Lawrence (sister of Ann) from Pendleton.

With rushing over, the Thetas are back to various interests including studies, social sessions, activities and planning for Homecoming Weekend. In the "activity" column we find Marcia Tamiesie and Dot Kopp as freshman floor presidents, with Dot freshman girl representative to the Class Council.

Amphibians, the swimming honorary, invited Betty Gillmore to membership. Ann Strowger served as scholarship chairman for Panhellenic. Janie Slocum is member-at-large for the sophomore YWCA cabinet, and Frances Gillmore is public affairs chairman on the YWCA campus cabinet. Jerry Pearson is Red Cross president; Barbara Keelen was elected to the Co-op board; Jeanne Hoffman is secretary of the Associated Students of the University of Oregon Senate.

What a thrill for Frances Gillmore to be chosen as Homecoming Weekend general chairman for 1951. Fran just returned to Oregon from a semester of enjoying the hospitality of Gamma Kappa chapter at George Washington University.

This year's Homecoming promises big doings, as it commemorates the University of Oregon's 75th anniversary. Assisting Frances in Homecoming preparations are a host of good workers including Thetas Carolyn Silva as alumni luncheon chairman, and Joan Walker as promotion chairman.

Our chapter is happy to welcome Barbara Denning, new affiliate from Alpha Kappa chapter. Following the affiliation ceremony Oct. 27, Venita Roberson was initiated.

Marriage and the "wide, wide world" claimed several Thetas this summer, necessitating re-elections for some offices. Meredith Burch is new vice president; Lois Nathan, treasurer; Frances Gillmore, editor, and Diane Bekins, rush chairman.

Our Phi Gamma Delta friends invited the Thetas to a "listening party" last Saturday afternoon. We listened to our football team clash with UCLA, munched pop corn and sang many Theta, Fiji and picnic songs.

Two alumnæ who remain dear to our hearts are Mary X. Plummer, our new rushing advisor, and Janie Krohn, newly-elected District XV president.

October 28

FRANCES ELLEN GILLMORE

Oregon State

A new white exterior, a remodeled library and built-in benches in the chapter room perked up the Beta Epsilon chapter house during the summer.

Our pledge class of 19 is destined to make a fine name for Theta here in the chapter, on the campus, and in their respective communities. We are proud of Wilma Anderson, Patty Daum, Billie Hargraves, Marian Ure and Janet Woolcott, all of Portland; Priscilla Beacon, Anna Branham and Grace Ann Jackson, all of Eugene; Fidelia Boone, Medford; Carolyn Colby and Nancy Rearden, Corvallis; Barbara Dunlavy, Marcella Murray and Betty Pinniger, Klamath Falls; Carol Hansen, Astoria; Sally Johnson, Salem; Ann Ridings, Molalla; Betty Bacon, Laguna Beach, Calif.; and Betty Bostock, El Cerrito, Calif.

Initiation this term added a link to our chain for Johanna Mumm.

Priscilla Beacon was one of the five finalists for homecoming queen. Grace Ann Jackson was named among the final five in the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi search. Nancy Halladay has just completed a lead role in the college's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace." Donna McDaniel is news editor of the students' daily paper, the Barometer. Patty Craig, Nancy Halladay and Marlene Little are section editors of the Beaver, the college yearbook.

Audrey Daum is kept busy at all conventions and campus functions as hospitality chairman of the Memorial Union, student activity center building. Marlene Little is a school yell leader. Joan Gustafson is vice prexy of the sophomore class, while Helen Wrolstad is filling the secretary's position for the juniors. Sally McCracken is chief executive of the home economics club. Our four new seahorses, swimming honorary members, are Zonweise Hubbard, Teddie Norton, Bev Robbins and Barbara Smith.

Our new Talon is Margaret McGowan and our Mortar Board is Joyce Gittinger. Last spring Alpha Lambda Delta, sophomore scholastic honorary, tapped Ellen Gilfillan, Margaret McGowan and Bev Robbins. Joyce Gittinger was selected for Kappa Delta Pi, education, and Kappa Pi, art. Zonweise Hubbard was named for Euterpe, music honorary. Marlene Little and Marilyn Ottis are new members of Delta Sigma Rho, forensics honorary. Our dramatically inclined Nancy Halladay and Rosemary Bigbee were picked for Masque & Dagger; Rosemary is also a member of National Collegiate Players. Marlee Little and Donna Lee McDaniel merited a spot in Theta Sigma Phi, journalistic honorary for women.

The house entertained a record crowd of alumnæ here for homecoming Oct. 20. A Halloween fireside at the house and a formal pledge dance at the country club were both successful fall term events. The house, teamed with Theta Xi, won honorable mention in the homecoming weekend noise parade.

We are anxious for winter and snow to arrive so we can win another leg on the trophy we now possess for first place in the women's ski intramural contest. November 2

Pennsylvania State

Already this year Beta Phi has gotten off to a rousing start. A very successful rushing season brought our chapter up to tops in both quantity and quality. Our featured rushing party was "Theta Kite Klub," which provided an opportunity to don our best black dresses and show our social side.

Beta Phi is close to bustin' its buttons with pride when it comes to Jo Hutchon. Not only is she one of the outstanding junior women on campus, but also she was featured in the "Interesting People" section recently in the American Magazine as Coed of the Month.

Three Thetas were included among the five "most outstanding" junior women who made up a committee to find a Junior Class queen at the Junior Prom. Our representatives were Janet Herd, Jo Hutchon and Joan Yerger. Five of the 12 semi-finalists among the nominees for the honor were Thetas: Madeleine Sharp, Solveig Berg, Catherine Corbiere, Nancy Baily and Mary Alyce Strom. Catherine, Nancy and Mary Alyce were among the five finalists.

The annual Belle Hop Ball, sponsored by the hotel administration students, found Marion Gray a finalist for Belle Hop queen. Last spring Sally Sechler was a May Day attendant, and she and Jo Hutchons were finalists for the title of Miss Penn State.

Anne Weber, Barbara Cole, Madeleine Sharp and Solveig Berg were elected to Treble Singers, with Madeleine on the board of directors. Joan Wiley is on the senior art board of LaVie, and Solveig Berg, Madeleine Sharp and Mary Alyce Strom won positions on the LaVie sophomore board. Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, recently elected Ruth Minkel to membership.

Marian Whitely, a student in education, was elected to the vice presidency of the school's student council. Sally Shoemaker is the senior class secretary-treasurer. Joan Wiley is president of Modern Dance club. Joan Yerger is chairman of Judicial, women's judiciary body which is a subsidiary of the Women's Student Government association.

Because of the many invitations to fraternity-sorority parties, Beta Phi has had to limit itself to accepting but one a week. So far this year we have been entertained by the Delta Upsilon at a roller skating party, by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon at a spaghetti dinner and by the Kappa Delta Rhos at a coffee hour and dance. We returned a party with the Phi Gamma Delta in the form of a Halloween masquerade, complete with apple bobbing, ukulele skits and cider and doughnuts.

Mrs. Munz, our district president, was with us for a few days this fall. All of the officers talked with her personally, and she met with each of the pledges individually.

Pittsburgh

Alpha Omega is now in full swing for the fall semester of '51. Weddings (seven of them!), work in resorts, camps, hospitals and offices, and our monthly socials kept us all hopping this summer. The biggest splurge of all was last June, when Alpha Omega packed up en masse and headed for a glorious week at Van Buren on Lake Erie. At the Theta cottage there (designated especially for Theta chapters by Miss Hammett, a Theta alumna), we had our fill of eating steaks, swimming in cold Erie and climbing mountains.

Now settled at Pitt again, we are in the midst of preparations for fall rushing. The rush tea is Nov. 4, so sing and skit practices can be found in every corner of our house.

Mary McParland and Pat Stone, president and corresponding secretary, have lots of ideas to give us from the District VI convention at Catauba, Ohio.

Pitt's Homecoming weekend is Nov. 9-10, climaxed with the clashing of Pitt and Ohio State's football teams. We're expecting to see a lot of our Alpha Gamma sisters for the weekend. An openhouse is being planned for them and our alumnae.

Mrs. Ann Farquahr Wettlaufer is a new person on our campus this year. A graduate of Penn, Ann is now one of the assistants to our Dean of Women. She's attended several of our meetings and is a welcome Theta.

With the fall comes the traditional choosing of fraternity sweethearts. Alpha Omega is proud to announce that Pat Bowers is the sweetheart of Phi Delta Theta at Pitt.

The Panhellenic reception for freshmen is going to feature something unique this year—a 48-voice women's chorus. Three girls from each of Pitt's 16 sororities are joining in singing one song from each group. The chorus is doing "Here's a Toast" to represent Theta. Panhellenic is enthusiastic over this integration of voices and songs. We hope the freshmen are as pleased as we are!

Purdue

November 4 was the initiation date for 25 new Thetas. They were: Ann Ackert, Annie Alter, Betty Anderson, Sally Ashbaucher, Barbara Beckman, June Bode, Marty Brophy, Zoe Coulson, Marilyn Demaree, Alice Dye, Sally Ellis, Marty Hopkins, Bebe Hunt, Judy Kirkpatrick, Eloise McNutt, Katy Neff, Helen Pielemeier, Jane Pound, Jean Randecker, Betty Ritter, Shirley Rogers, Beverly Starnes, Sally Somers, Beverly Taylor and Julie Thompson.

Betty Ritter received the outstanding pledge ring. The high scholarship trophy went to Katy Neff and the improvement award to Connie Hudson.

We started the year with a block party given with the S.A.E., Sigma Nu, Theta Xi, Phi Kappa Sigma, Sigma Chi and Beta Theta Pi fraternities.

Our new housemother is Mrs. Hazel K. Lybrook who came to us from James Millikin university in Illinois. We are planning a tea to introduce her to the faculty and students next month.

We all had a wonderful time planning the Dad's Day party. The pledges gave a skit for the fathers, and then the fathers in turn had to give a skit. The sophomore pledges' fathers were given pledge pins and had to promise to obey a unique set of pledge rules. Then the juniors' fathers went through initiation rituals and received giant-sized kites. After the seniors' fathers received their diplomas, all were allowed to enjoy the Dad's Day banquet.

Our Homecoming openhouse was our next big affair. We welcomed alumnae from all over the country.

Theta has been doing well in campus activities. Junior jobs went to Betty Allen, Jeanne Woeste, Allison Mead, Zoe Coulson, Pam Nolen, Betty Schroyer, Marty Brophy and Mary Ellen Binney for work in their respective activities. Five other girls received activity keys.

Nancy Staggs, Nancy Neff, Cynthia Sargent Schrier and Shirley Smith hold senior positions this year.

Gold Pepper, the junior activities honorary pledged five Thetas! They were Cynthia Sargent Schrier, Margie Wiggins Hanley, Nancy Staggs, Nancy Neff and Marty Christian, president. Two of these girls have already been tapped for Mortar Board: Cynthia Sargent and Nancy Neff. Katy Neff and Annie Alter, with high scholastic achievement, made Alpha Lambda Delta.

PAM NOLEN

Randolph-Macon

With no time even to unpack, we were plunged into our first rush party on Sept. 21. As we began welcoming rushees, we were very proud of our house. It was redecorated late last spring, and we owe thanks to Ann Frankenberg who did a grand job in planning and supervising the work.

For the second set of informal rush parties, however, the house was hardly recognizable, having been transformed into a Theta isle. With a background of music from "South Pacific" (with appropriate Theta words, of course) and a real monkey for added atmosphere, Thetas and rushees alike enjoyed the lively skit and snappy songs.

Two days after the formal rush parties, 27 girls were wearing our pledge ribbons. Pledges are: Juanita Goodman (daughter of Juanita Smith, Beta Beta), Jeannine Defries and Marilyn Rosselot (sister of Kay Rosselot, Beta Beta), all of Memphis, Tenn.; Betty Bawden, Plainview, Tex.; Martha Bond, Darien, Conn.; Barbara Bouldin and Lucia Kyle, both of Houston, Tex.; Barbara Gibson, Muskogee, Okla.; Pat Guthrie, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Rebecca Hargis, Parisburg; Hope Harrison, Short Hills, N.J.; Alice Heinzen, Nutley, N.J.; Margaret Linch, Atlanta, Ga.; Pat Laughbaum and Ann Pearson, both of Oklahoma City, Okl.; Betty McGehee, Berryville; Eleanor McKnight, Bedford, Ind.; Mary Miller, Culpeper; Tola Moline and Jane Moore, both of Wichita Falls, Tex.; Sally Parker, Arlington; Rebecca Rice, Carmi, Ill.; Dar Rowland, Geneva, Ill.; Mary Lou Sempter, Dallas, Tex.; Nancy Teeling, Waco, Tex.; Gayhla Walter, Onley, and Jane Ward, Montgomery, Ala.

Several Thetas were elected to important campus posts last spring. Margot Holt was named president of Sock and Buskin; Bunny Willis, editor of The Tattler, and Pat Guthrie, vice president of the sophomore class. We were proud of Dot Sutherland who was first in the feature section of the Helianthus.

This fall Marty Irby has been appointed chairman of the vocational guidance committee, and Peggy Anderson is chairman of the Red Cross blood donation committee. Kitty Williams has been brought out P.M. Polly Powell and Pat McDermott were selected as members of the Allied East Virginia hockey team. October 28
ANN MCINTYRE

Rollins

Here are the Thetas again, happy to be back and eager for another year at Rollins college. After the much-publicized upheaval in the college administration last year, we are all doubly anxious to make this year outstanding.

And speaking of outstanding, that word perfectly describes our new pledge class. Pledged Oct. 21 were: Beverly Boothby, Nancy Course, Joan Curtis, Kay Dunlap, Carol Farquharson, Abbie Gail Gearhart, Jo Ann Lucas, Linda McIlvain, Margaret Mangum, Mary Marsh, Louise Mullin, Cynthia Ross, Mary Ann Smith and Julia Jane Swicegood.

The returning Gamma Gamma chapter officers are: Bobbie Davis, president; Sally Hopple, vice president; Kay McDonnell, recording secretary; Rebecca Strickland, corresponding secretary, and Allee Chatham, treasurer.

Barbara Toon will be initiated Oct. 29. Another welcome addition to our chapter is Ann Frankenberg, a transfer from Randolph-Macon. Ann will soon be affiliated with Gamma Gamma.

Marie Perkins and Shirley Sauerbrunn were our representatives at the Tallahassee convention last summer. Besides having a marvelous time and meeting so many Thetas, they returned with many enthusiastic ideas for our chapter.

October 23 PATRICIA ANN SHEPPARD

*San Diego

Gamma Sigma started off the fall semester with 17 brand new pledges after a successful summer rush season. The new girls are: Joan Angel, Phyllis Cadwell, Barbara Camillo, Jody Coles, Nina Curry, Phyllis Ekrem, Mary Ellen Hawe, Betty Dell Haines, Mary Ellen Hill, Katherine Hogan, Judy Jones, Barbara North, Joan Otis, Diane Penry, Jeanne Rayho, Susan Wight and Barbara Wolfe.

The girls were pledged at a combination pledge-scholarship banquet at the San Diego club. Awarded scholarships that evening were Marna Knox for achieving the highest grade-point average among members, and Judy Calland who had the most improvement in grades. Kappa Alpha Theta won second place in scholarship this year, a feat of which we are all very proud.

Homecoming was a big event for Gamma Sigma this fall. Yvonne Wickstrom, Gamma Sigma president was one of the four queen attendants. Yvonne was the Pi Kappa Alpha queen candidate. Once again the Theta float under the direction of Taiché Willoughby and Ann Cozens won honors. Our representation of Belle Benchley's famous book, "My Friend, The Ape," took first place in the sorority division and won a trophy as the most novel float. A third trophy was added to our collection that weekend also as we won first place in the Pi Beta Phi chrysanthemum sale.

After San Diego State votes in the fall election were counted, two Thetas came through on the victorious side. Betty Dodge was elected junior representative on the Associated Student Body council and Yvonne Wickstrom is the new secretary of the junior class. These two join Barbara Kupiec who was elected treasurer of the Associated Women Students last spring.

November 4 was a big day for 12 neophytes who were presented with new black and gold kites. The new members are: Jane Balch, Janet Blom, Jane Bowers, Esther Crittendon, Ann Dawson, Anne Downey, Pat Fischler, Mary Jane Hall, Barbara Smith, Alicia Weeks, Louise Wigchert and Marjorie Young. The day ended with a joint meeting with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Many events are planned for the future. Joint meetings will be held with Pi Kappa Alpha and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternities. A scholarship potluck dinner is planned for Nov. 26 for the purpose of raising $50 for the sorority scholarship.

Christmas activities already crowd the calendar. Theta and Kappa Sigma fraternity will get together Dec. 16 for their annual party for underprivileged children. December 17 is the night when the chapter exchange gifts. The holidays will be climaxed for Gamma Sigma on Dec. 22 when our annual Christmas formal will be held at the La Jolla Country Club. October 30
JUDY CALLAND

San Jose State

The Thetas started off the new school year with their annual get-together barbecue on the second day of registration. Diane Lovely gave us the use of her home for the occasion.

Our first social function for the year was a tea honoring our new housemother, Mrs. Rush Hendricks. All the local alumnae and mothers were invited as were the other sorority housemothers and presidents.

We were elated over placing in the annual Theta Chi All-Greek variety show. We presented a skit entitled, "Who Killed Maggie?" Carol Hultberg is now reigning as Theta Chi Dream Girl.

On Oct. 28 we initiated our spring pledges: Lynette Clary, Virginia Anderson, Barbara Johnston, Inga Jensen, Joan Sullivan and Carol Hultberg. After initiation we had a dinner party at which corsages of yellow mums tied with violet ribbons, presented by the S.A.E.s, were a pleasant surprise for the initiates.

Homecoming is now upon us. We are working hard on our float and have named Pinky Stone as our candidate for queen. Another candidate at present is Lynette Clary who is running for Moonlight Girl of Phi Sigma Kappa.

The Pi Kappa Alphas have asked us to join them for the Novice Boxing Tournament competition. We hope to win the trophy again this year.

Attending the district convention at Santa Monica this summer were Pat Alexander, Betsy Amick, Alice Daugherty, Beth Lou Lundy, Nancy Childrey and Corinne Kenneally. Pat, our president, presented Mrs. James Lively, the retiring district president, with a bouquet of yellow roses at the banquet closing the convention.

We are eagerly awaiting the groundbreaking ceremonies for our new house. They are expected to take place some time in November.

BARBARA DRISCOLL

South Dakota

The South Dakota chapter began the year with the pledging of 21 girls. They are: Claudia Beauregard, Mary Jean Dunn and Ann Shaw, all of Mitchell; Florence Cook, Alpena; Doris Benson, Veloy Hawkey, Pat Montgomery, Gloria Nanson and Patricia Rustead, all of Sioux Falls; Marilyn Benton, Ipswich; Dorothy Denoff and Jacqueline Hepper, both of Mobridge; Jane Gunderson, Centerville; Pat Sather, Presho; Barbara Schachte and Marilyn Werth, both of Aberdeen; Betty Smiley, Belle Fourche; Dorothy Sievert, Watertown; Frankie Swett, Huron; Phyliss Vetter, Gettysburg, and Joan Wallizer, Scotland.

On Oct. 4 we initiated the following eight girls: Katherine Sessler, Ann Paulsrud, Janet Reding, Mary Ann Haitz, Shirley Macy, Barbara Crosson, Barbara Berguin and Nancy Lees.

Perhaps our biggest thrill this year was the crowning of Irene O'Connor as "Miss Dakota." This was the third year in a row that Theta had captured this honor on campus. Irene was the second place winner in the Miss America contest last year.

Our house decorations, "U Will Get A Boot Out of This," with battered football players hanging from trees and windows after being clouted by our giant red and white University spikes, took second place honors. Our beautiful Cinderella float with the theme, "Bewitching 'U' Victory" also captured second place. It was on this same day that many of our last year seniors and other Thetas attended our annual Dakota Day Buffet.

Introducing Irene O'Connor, who was crowned "Miss Dakota" at the annual Dakota Day.

Taking additional honor was Sally Winters who was elected president of Zeta Phi Eta, honorary speech sorority. Marjory Drey was initiated into Zeta Phi Eta this year.

Initiated into the honorary sophomore women's military, Guidon, were Carol Witt, Mary Jean Whiting, Trudy Hasse and Carol Clark.

Last spring Alpha Rho concluded its year's activities with the capping of two girls, Carol Patten and Irene O'Connor, to Mortar Board. Catherine Cotton was named to Phi Beta Kappa.

Now we are beginning to practice for the Christmas serenade, and plans are being formed for our "Holly Hop," the Christmas formal.

Chi chapter began the college season early with many girls back early for campus positions during freshman week. Jane Schutter, president of Women's Student Government; Sue Marsh, secretary of the WSG Council, and Sally Bingham, a junior officer, were all on hand to start off with a well governed school year.

Barbara Kelley, Andie Lienau, Lu Krayenhof and Jane Van Saun were back as guides for the freshman girls both in campus houses and for city students to help in orientation. Jane Toye, Pat Fay, Nancy Hoehle, Liz Brydon, Jean Dale and Debbie Wallwork worked on the freshman orientation group—the Goon Squad. Pat Perry attended the chapel leaders' conference at Casawasco.

Rushing got under way shortly after the start of school, and, for the costume party, the rushees walked through a huge story-book into Theta Fairyland. At the formal party the girls heard the story of the twin stars, telling of the history of Kappa Alpha Theta from its beginnings at De Pauw and tracing it through the different sections of the country with outstanding points of interest about each. Rushing ended with 22 wonderful new pledges for Chi chapter: Diane Baldwin, Ann Bassett, Jean Brydon, Donna Cromwell, Joyce Flynn, Shirley Foster, Sherry Goodrich, Mimi Hannon, Betty Hazard, Mary Lee Helseth, Sandy King, Nancy Maker, Ginny McGean, Barbara Myers, Emily O'Keefe, Phyllis Osborne, Judy Payne, Ruth Schrader, Jean Selig, Ann Sterling, Suzanne Tooke and Sally Wilks.

Jean Brydon, one of the new pledges, was elected as one of the two freshman representatives to Women's Student Government.

Initiation joined Connie Beecher, Debbie Wallwork and Pat Turner to the Theta chain. We also welcomed Irene Anthony, a Theta transfer from Adelphi.

Although bustling around with rushing plans, Chi found time to enter a poster in the Illinois contest and won the trophy for the sorority-fraternity division with their slogan "Beat Illinois with the same old line and tackle."

Honorary ribbons are worn proudly by Ann Bergeron, Zeta Phi Eta, speech honorary, and Jean Van Saun, Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary.

Chi is backing the Syracuse yearbook campaign with special interest this year since Beth Furman, last year's chapter correspondent, holds the editorship. The yearbook staff boasts of several other Thetas, too, with Sally Bingham and Lu Krayenhof of the business staff and Nancy Hutton as junior are editor as well as several girls on the editorial staff.

Our chapter will really be on its toes this year with our own Janet Baum elected chief justice of the joint men's and women's student court.

October 30

JANE VAN SAUN

Texas

The pledging of 49 girls marked the beginning of Alpha Theta's fall semester.

Our pledges are Barbara Allen, Ann Benbow, Ann

Chipman, Marjorie Cramer, Carolyn Culbert, JoAnn DeLoach, Mary Lynn DuBose, Betty Elizardi, Martine Floyd, Eloise Frame, Ann Furman, Patty Gideon, Linda Greathouse, Janet Green, Joan Gunderson, Shirley Hartshorn, Ginger Hays, Betty Hill, Shirley Hitt, Ann Hulse, Sue Johnson, Julie Kight, Lynn Lovinggood, Marian Marley, Sandra Mayfield, Donna Nenstiel, Jane Peek, Ann Playter, Carolyn Renfrow, Ann Riddick, Nancy Romine, Louise Rupp, Sue Sanborn, Nan Sanders, Laura Sandifer, Mary Sue Shields, Judy Slatten, Carolyn Smith, Alice Stamp, Bonnie Swem, Cecil Tabor, Ann Venable, Carolyn White, Mary Winsett, Ouida Jo Wilkerson, Marian Williams, Kay Lee Wrange, Patsy Zoch and Ann Zuehl.

Amidst the fall whirl of football, parties and studying, the Thetas have managed to sandwich in many other activities. Our first social function was the annual faculty tea given Oct. 7. We entertained our professors and the housemothers of the other sorority, fraternity, dormitory and boarding houses. In addition to the faculty tea, several openhouses have been planned for the fall months, the first of which was given for the Phi Delt Oct. 26. On Nov. 18 we will honor Theta brothers and sons now in school and our own "pinees" with a breakfast.

Also on the list for November activity will be practices for fraternity sing-song to be held the first week in December. Our Alpha Theta Octet, whose members and their entertainment are indispensable to rush parties, serenades and openhouses throughout the year, will sing Nov. 21 in the Campus Chest Talent Show.

One of our first bits of business was electing officers to fill the places of several girls who did not return to school this fall. New officers are Muffy Mosle, scholarship chairman; Joy Chapoton, social chairman; Elaine Folley editor; Ellie Luckett, chaplain; Mary Louise Ivey, courtesy chairman; Virginia Dyke, honor board member; Bee Wright, song leader, and Ruthie Fulcher, historian.

The University of Texas is often accused of having a campus queen election almost every day of the week. Whether this accusation is true or not, Theta will be well-represented this year among the beauties. In the contest for the Ten Most Beautiful we have three girls competing. They are Ellie Luckett, Lynn Lovinggood and Martine Floyd. Our nominee for Blue Bonnet Belle is Ann Robinett. Lynn was also selected Rangerette for the Ranger, the campus magazine.

Initiation Oct. 17 gave the kite to six of our chapter. They are Del Rose Birdsong, Annabel Shotts, Jeta Del Simons, Loey Bass, Shelly Furr Hall and Frances Miller. Affiliation ceremony was held Oct. 29 for Pat Scott, transfer from Sophie Newcomb. We are also glad to welcome our other new transfers, Louise Pitchford from Colorado university, Pat Smith from Sophie Newcomb, Robbie Dell Denny from Randolph Macon and Claudette Cain from S.M.U.

Several Alpha Thetas have been asked to join honorary societies on the campus. New members of Spooks, a service organization, are Mary Winsett, Mary Louise Ivey, Sidney Stinnett, Elaine Folley, Patty Gideon and Donna Nenstiel. Chosen for membership in Ashbel Literary society are Sidney Stinnett, Jane York, Pat Hinds, Diane Lehman and Ann Playter. Pierian Literary society has selected Nellie Adams, Pat Miller, Elaine Folley and Ruthie Fulcher for membership. Mary Louise Ivey was elected president of Pierian.

Alpha Eta started the fall with all the girls gathering for rush preparation. We welcomed Jessica Barton, transfer from Duke, and Faye Edwards and Betty Gardner, transfers from Randolph-Macon, who came early to get acquainted and help rush. The alumnae chapter here presented us with a beautiful new television set and new porch furniture.

After three successful days of rushing, we pledged the following girls on Sept. 20: Ann Blair Adams and Carole Cole, both of Humboldt; Jane Anderson and Betty Brown, both of Pulaski; Mary Ashley, Memphis; Mary Brooke, Decatur, Ga.; Ann Cook and Wimberly Hickey, both of Columbia; Martha Douglass and Elizabeth McKnight, both of Nashville; Mary Ann Frederick, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Kitty Garrett, Tunica, Miss.; Tennet Lee Griffin, Mobile, Ala.; Susan Coltrane, Callie Healey, Jean Higgins, Abbie Long, Shirley Moore and Kathryn Tomlinson, all of Atlanta, Ga.; Anne Isaacs and Pattie West, both of Louisville, Ky.; Margaret Patch, Clarksville, and Bee Qualls, Springfield. A week after pledging we held a slumber party at the house in honor of the new pledges.

Our chapter received several honors last spring, one of which was Bebe Simms' being "Miss Vanderbilt." Merney Hodge was chosen "Goddess of the Chase," the most beautiful girl on campus, and Cynthia Braley was tapped Mortar Board.

This fall we also have two new Athenians, Mellie Fisch and Dudley Brown, and two new Lotus Eaters, Peggy Webb and Charlotte Elliott. The Athenians is an honorary organization for junior women, and the Lotus Eaters is an honorary organization for sophomore women. In the October elections Elizabeth McKnight was elected freshman representative to the Honor Council.

Alpha Eta Thetas have received honors on other campuses as well as on our own. Peggy Neill attended the homecoming dances at Sewanee and was chosen homecoming queen.

Our last year's program for scholarship improvement had very positive results because we won the district scholarship cup at the district convention this summer, and our pledge class also won the scholarship cup last year for the highest average of all the pledge classes.

Our plans for the rest of the quarter include a visit from Mrs. Skeels, our district president, the badminton tournament and the swimming tournament. October 29

KATHRYN PRITCHARD

Vermont

Everything is in a whirl at the Theta house now, with rushing season just getting under way. In between the sorority tours and openhouses, preparations are going full steam ahead for our informal parties and our formal party. Each Theta is going from one extreme to the other in costumes and personality for the two informal parties; at one each will be a "flapper," but at the other, each is to be a god as we entertain at a mythological party. Then another complete change will take place as we present a Cinderella party for our formal dinner.

Other important occasions which have kept us at work this fall have been our open houses after football games, work on our Homecoming poster, and the initiation of five new Thetas. Those initiated are: Ellen Crowley, Jean Gerde, Joanne Haigis, Jean Hawley and Rita Johnson. Juanita Barcomb, a junior, was pledged two weeks ago.

Another event which we circled on our calendars was a Monday evening when the local alumnae brought box lunches which they shared with the active whose name they drew. We all had a lot of fun, and a fireside discussion on rushing proved interesting to all.

In the midst of a busy and happy fall, each girl is finding time to remember with pleasure the interfraternity sing last spring, which the Thetas won after a lot of serious rehearsing. Other things which we remember with pride from last spring are the elections of our president, Barbara Hardie, as president of Women's Student Union and to Mortar Board, of Betsy Clark, Phyllis McCormick and Jean Millis to the junior honorary, Staff and Sandal, and of Malia Dean, Jean Gerde, Rita Johnson and Martha Riddell to Sophomore Aides, the sophomore honorary.

Washburn

From the registration tea to the Black and Gold party and preferential, Thetas here at Washburn smiled sweetly, sang their best and hoped! Climaxing rush week we pledged 24 girls, 11 from Topeka and 13 from out of town.

Our new pledges include: Sylvia Bartell, Hazelton, Pa.; Mary Ann Hindenoch and Etta Allen Caston (daughter of Catherine Cates Caston), both of Independence; Winifred Denton, Lenox, Ia.; Beverly Ann Drake, Conway Springs; Pauline Heckathorn, Kinsley; Clarine Locher, Sabetha; Phyllis Malkmus and Ella Mae Terhune, both of Wellington; Mora Schroeder, Edwardsville, and Gretchen Hart, Sally Stottler and Jane Warburton (daughter of Doris Gilmore Warburton), all of Kansas City.

The Topeka pledges are Jean Bell, Joan Bennett, Phyllis Brace, Dorothy Canfield, Anne Dooley (daughter of Margaret Peterson Dooley), Darlene Jensen, Janice Kelly, Elizabeth Passman, Janet Polom, Emily Scott and Patty Scott (sister of Connie Scott).

The biggest surprise for Alpha Upsilon this fall was the redecorated second floor of the chapter house. White dutch curtains adorn all the windows, and each room has dust ruffles on the beds and matching quilted covers for the chairs. At Christmastime the alumnae plan to redecorate the third floor of the house.

To honor the alumnae who were in charge of the redecorating, we entertained with an openhouse on Oct. 21. Parents, faculty and alumnae were our guests. Mrs. Paul Beatty, Mrs. Leonard Boyd, Mrs. William Dumars and Mrs. Ralph Oman poured, Initiation services for Annette Huke and Sally Morrison were held Oct. 19. A slumber party followed that evening.

Mrs. Ewing B. Fergus, president of District IV, was honored guest at the Theta house Nov. 5-7. Mrs. Fergus brought us first-hand information about the Institute of Logopedics.

Thetas control four of the five major publications jobs at Washburn. Nancy Marsh is editor of Review, school paper. Lorraine Roberts is editor of the Kaw, campus yearbook, and Doris Reid is business manager of the Kaw. Student directory co-editors are Patty Fink and Sally Morrison.

Other campus offices held by Thetas include: Ruth Hille, secretary of the senior class; Sally Morrison, vice president of the junior class; Doris Reid, secretary of Collegiate Young Republicans and secretary of Phi Sigma Chi; Jody Mandeville, secretary of Panhellenic, and Sally Morrison, society editor of the Review.

Joan Roberts and Joan Vinaroff were called to Nonoso last spring. That is the senior women's honorary organization. This fall Nancy Marsh was elected to Kappa Mu Epsilon, honorary mathematics fraternity.

On Oct. 26 Thetas entertained their dates at a chili supper preceding the Washburn-Beloit football game. At each of our games, incidentally, Marilyn Towler and Janet Pollom are among the cheerleaders who lead our Phi Sigma Chi national pep club in yells.

Homecoming was Nov. 3, and we played Fort Hays State college. The theme for our float was "Melt-Em Down," and the house decoration was a big mouse trap with a tiger caught in the spring; the motto: "Trap-Em."

Rushees went "traveling" at Alpha Lambda rush parties this fall. Flowered parasols, paper lanterns, tea, fortune cookies and incense lent the atmosphere of China to the first parties. Glittering Eiffel towers, red roses and French pastries gave a touch of France to our final preference party.

The 26 pledges are: Betty Ackerman, Barbara Allen, Marilyn Allen, Lynn Bovic, Jude Hansen, Nancy Haskill, Judy Hawkins, Joanne Ives, Sally Malone, Catherine Mauk, Ann Rolfe, Ellen Ross, Marie Svendsen and Pat Wright, all of Seattle. Out-of-town girls are: Suzanne Buller and Marilyn Frame, both of Yakima; Patti Culliton, Bellevue; Betsy DeCan, Everett; Karen Hullquist, Bellingham; LouAnn Johnson, Aberdeen; Diane Link, Mercer Island, and Shirley Moore, Colleen Cooke and Suzanne Stout, all of Spokane. Out-of-state girls are Mary Cauffield, Monrovia, Calif., and Diane Thurston, Honolulu, T.H.

Marilyn Kropft, vice president and pledge trainer, introduced a more active orientation program for the pledges this year. It filled the four days between pledge night and the first day of school with a picnic and cruise on Lake Washington, a "welcome" brunch, a special pajama party, and a tour of the campus guided by "Big sisters."

The senior and sophomore scholarship cups were presented to Janet Job and MaryLou Zimmerman, respectively, at Senior Breakfast last June. The sophomore and freshman inspirations were given to Babs Wakeman and Marybeth Welch.

University honors came to Thetas at a convocation this fall when President Raymond Allen presented MaryLou Zimmerman and Ann Kellogg awards for outstanding scholarship.

Homecoming plans are humming under the able direction of Peggins Newguard and her assistant, Marybeth Welch. A huge sign of paper rosettes is planned picturing a bride and groom at the altar under the motto, "I, Washington, take thee, Stanford." Here's hoping we live up to last year and have a winner!

JOANNE NEWSOM

*Washington State

The excitement of hearing about trips to convention, Europe, Hawaii, and being together again was further heightened by fall rush activities. Alpha Sigma boasts six wonderful new pledges.

The wearers of pledge pins are: Martha Gilleland, Pullman, daughter of Louise Heathman Gilleland; Dorothy Ann Donovan, Walla Walla; Jeanne LaLone, Spokane; Louise Mullen, Everett; Mary Ruddell, Lewiston, Ida., and Mary White, Yakima. Mary Ruddell is pledge class president.

We just finished a busy Homecoming Weekend, and a successful one. Our Cougars defeated the University of Oregon 41 to 6. We won a trophy for the best pajama rally skit (we did it decked out in rabbit costumes we made), and copped the second prize trophy in the all-college float contest. We were proud of Joann Miller who reigned as Homecoming Princess. We cheered extra loud at the game, too, for Barbara Nelson is a new cheerleader.

We welcome Hazel Baird Beil who was elected President of District XV at the Banff District Theta Convention. Mary X. Plummer, district president for five years, was honored by a reception during her visit with us last spring. Her time spent with us is so much appreciated.

Thetas rank high in fall activities. Outstanding is Nancy Graham, YWCA president. She spent the summer in New York, going to President's school at Columbia University. Mary Kay Johnston, Jean Messe, Carol King and Jeannine Hoyt serve on YWCA cabinet, ASSCW chairmanships have been earned by Pat Sheely, CUB Promotion, and Jeannine Hoyt, Cougar Code.

Newly elected house officers are: vice president and pledge trainer, Beth Folsom; recording secretary, Jean Cockrell; scholarship chairman and editor, Liane White; song leader, Janet Lombard; historian, Molly Falknor, and assistant house manager, Marianne Troy.

Jeanne LaLone, who has displayed her piano talent for us many times since she pledged, has been awarded a four year music scholarship at WSC.

Lael Anderson has been named captain of WSC Women's Ski team. When weather permits soon, she will exhibit her skiing skill. The Evergreen claims Jeannine Hoyt as fall news editor.

Spurs, sophomore women's honorary, tapped Mary Kay Johnston and Lael Anderson to its membership. Lael was appointed chairman of the annual Registration Ball, and Mary Kay is historian of the group. Carol Saunders is the new treasurer of Sigma Kappa Phi, foreign language honorary. Outstanding in drama, Beth Folsom and Barbara Nelson were recently initiated into the Washington State Players Guild.

Last spring heaped more glory upon Thetas. Most prominent was Charlotte Friel who was one of the "Big Ten" and then received the highest honor, "Big Chief." She was graduated with honors, being a member of Phi Kappa Phi. Gloria Davis also was graduated with honors and was Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Lorraine Glover was named an outstanding senior. Donna Wood, junior, was named to Phi Chi Theta, women's business honorary, and Susan Anderson to Pi Lambda Theta, education honorary.

Spring beauties were: Patty Wolfe, finalist for Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha; Pat Sheely, Junior Prom Queen finalist, and Nancy Graham, Regimental Colonel of ROTC.

This fall marked the formal opening of WSC's Holland library. It is the most modern library west of the Mississippi. Its size alone distinguishes it, but the architecture and interior design are even more impressive. In line with WSC expansion and recognition is the erection of the new student union building to be called the CUB. It will be ready in the fall of 1952. It, too, is remarkable for size and modern architure. The CUB will house student activities and recreation facilities.

Our Panhellenic plans many excellent functions. Recently the Panhellenic Workshop was held. All girls in sororities attended and took part in discussions such as, "Responsibility of Wearing a Pin," "Adjustments to a Living Group" and "Pledge-Member Relationships." Soon in store for us is a Round-Robin dinner in which all sororities participate—a wonderful way to meet and know girls from other houses.

With the return of school days, the Thetas started right to work. We happily welcomed a transfer from Ohio Wesleyan, Barbara Crossett, and on Oct. 3 initiation was held for Rebecca Kern Smith and Katherine Binns.

An informal dance Oct. 26 was a great success. Following the Halloween theme, the dance was replete with witches, black cats and hay stacks.

With the approach of Homecoming Nov. 10, the Thetas are working hard for a prize-winning float to equal their first prize booth last May Day.

As a continuation of the fraternity-sorority teas, Beta Lambda is looking forward to the get-together at the Theta Delta Chi lodge on Nov. 17.

Sunday by the Thetas and the Chi Phis, and the following week was devoted to workshops and talks concerning the functions of sororities and fraternities on the campus and the bettering of relations between the two. The Thetas were also entertained at an exchange dinner by the SAEs and the Alpha Gamma Rhos. The week was brought to a close with a banquet sponsored by Interfraternity Council and the Panhellenic.

The Thetas were asked again by the "W" Club to participate in their annual "Egg Hop," which was held on Bascom Hill on Nov. 2. An "Egg Hop," which is an old Indian game, consists of carrying an egg on the back of the hand while trying to knock down bowling pins with a block of wood. This is to be done on only one leg. Teams have been chosen and the team that drops the most eggs, loses. If the "W" Club comes out on top again this year, the Theta's will have to wear the boys' letter sweaters for the following week, while, if the boys lose, they will have to wear our Theta beanies.

With Homecoming on the schedule for Nov. 3, there have been many Thetas in the news: Carol Jean Cherry was chosen as queen of the Homecoming Ball. Mitzi Forsythe was co-chairman of the Homecoming buttons and Jone Pavlick was chairman of promotions for the event.

LOAN AND FELLOWSHIP FUND OF

Kappa Alpha Theta

Financial Favors for Your Future

$50.00 to $500.00 in a hurry to keep you in college!

- ★ LOANS. Write Mrs. G. F. Elmendorf, 226 So. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, California for your Application Blank.
- ★ Return the Application together with a concise statement covering your activities, scholarship, health—amount of money needed, and your plan to repay, plus a nominal 3% annual interest charge, within two years after graduation. Include letters of recommendation from your chapter president and a member of the chapter advisory board. Endorsements of your note will be required from two responsible persons, preferably Thetas.
- ★ Every Theta considered by the Loan Committee is a special, confidential case. Airmail will speed the necessary correspondence to completion.
- ★ Graduate Thetas seeking advanced study are eligible for loans. Mrs. Elmendorf will send information and Application Blanks on request.
- ★ AWARDS in the form of gifts are granted competitively to outstanding Seniors or Graduate Students. Miss Norma Taylor, 15 Willowbank Ave., Toronto, Canada, will furnish information.
- ★ GIFT FELLOWSHIPS of $1500.00 are granted for advanced graduate study. Mrs. J. T. Peden, Box 545, Poland, Ohio, will furnish information. Watch your Kappa Alpha Theta magazine for announcements of available Fellowships and Awards. Applications should be sent immediately to proper parties listed above.

Financial Favors Ensure Their Futures!

- ★ Contributions to the Loan and Fellowship Fund are gifts in perpetuity, as it is a revolving fund. Your assistance in this creative program makes it possible for many Thetas to obtain degrees necessary for higher earning capacity. You are vital in maintaining high standards in Fraternity and Community interests and betterment.
- ★ Checks for gifts to the fund should be drawn to KAPPA ALPHA THETA, and mailed to Helen E. Sackett, Executive Secretary, Suite 820, 20 N. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.
